other ways; he has had three strokes of paralysis, and is badly disabled besides, having some impediment in his speech. He was married in 1856, May 8, to Rebecca Logenecker, and soon after came to Milford Township, and located. Their family consists of seven children—Alva J. (who married Luella Cox), Harriet C. (who married Augustus J. Kent), Celia A. (deceased), Emma J. (married to John Duboise), Noah E., Mary A. and Charles W. Mr. Kimmel has served two terms as Township Trustee, and had previously been Director of Schools and Pathmaster. His farm numbers 100 acres, well improved, and is valued at about $8,000. He is a Republican.

ELDER F. KOMP is a native of Germany, where he was born in Hesse-Darmstadt April 13, 1828, and was brought to America by his parents, Henry and Elizabeth (Deetz) Komp, in 1831. They lived three years in Pennsylvania, then moved to Clark County, Ohio, and came to Whitley County, Ind., in 1843; cleared two farms and lived near Columbiana City until their deaths. The subject, when twenty-two years old, began his calling as a minister in the Church of God. In early times he had many difficulties to contend with, and received but slight remuneration for his services among the pioneers as a missionary minister, and frequently, to keep appointments, made ten trips of 300 miles each annually. For the year of 1856, he received $17.50 for his continual services, and for several succeeding years was rewarded with $50 annually. In the fall of 1863, Mr. Komp was drafted and went in the army with Company F, Illinois Volunteer Infantry. In September, 1864, he was honorably discharged, and after his return, while engaged in farming, preached locally until 1871, when he came to his farm of eighty-one acres in this township, where he now lives. For two years he was engaged in the ministry, and since then has given his attention to farming, preaching when occasion requires. Mr. Komp is an anti-secret society man, a believer in divine inspiration and total abstinence, and entertains the views of the Republican party. He was married, in 1856, May 22, to Elizabeth Parker, daughter of Isaac and Margaret Parker, natives of Pennsylvania. She was born June 22, 1832, in Armstrong County, Penn. Mr. and Mrs. Komp have had eight children, five now living —George E., Margaret D., Lodema L., Eva R. and Freddie.

GEORGE T. LOVETT was born in Stark County, Ohio, December 24, 1831. His parents, R. and Katharine (Martin) Lovett, natives of Pennsylvania, came to Stark County, Ohio, in the fall of 1830, and resided until after her death, August 18, 1851, when the father came to Indiana and located in this township in 1856. George Lovett is the eldest of nine children, and began working for himself when twenty-two years old. The first year he lost only two days' work, and in the fall of 1854 came to Milford Township. He has one brother who is a minister, and one brother went to the war and received fatal wounds in the battle of Murfreesboro. The subject was married, March 13, 1856, to Katharine Brady, daughter of David and Elizabeth Brady. Their children are Mary F. and George R., living, and Laura E., deceased. Upon his arrival in Milford Township, Mr. Lovett had only $6, and started by running a threshing machine and farming. He now owns one of the finest farms in the township—155 acres under excellent cultivation, and supplied with every convenience. He is a Republican, and for the past twenty-six years, with the exception of two summers, has been Superintendent of the Sunday school, and with his wife is a member of the Church of God.

DAVID LOWER was born in Northumberland County, Penn., September 12, 1816, the son of Conrad and Hannah (Cramer) Lower, of German de-

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

PERRY COUNTY'S BOROUGHS, TOWNSHIPS AND VILLAGES.

WHEN the lands which now form Perry County were purchased by the Penns, from the Indians, in 1754, that part of the county lying west of the Juniata and generally termed Sherman's Valley, was formed into a single township, of Cumberland County, called Tyrone. That part of the county lying between the Juniata and Susquehanna Rivers was a part of Fermanagh Township, Cumberland County, from the latter part of 1754 or early in 1755, when that township was erected. Fermanagh Township then was of large extent, including all the lands of the new purchase lying between the Juniata and Susquehanna Rivers. It also included that part of Mifflin County lying south of the Juniata, to the Black Log Mountain, and parts of Snyder, Centre and Huntingdon Counties. That extensive and original township, Tyrone, is to-day subdivided into six boroughs and fifteen townships. As settlement continued and the population demanded smaller units of self-government Fermanagh Township, lying northeast of Sherman's Valley, also was subdivided, and all that part of Perry County, save the small section lying north and west of Cocolamus Creek, was made into a separate township, named Greenwood, in 1767. That section lying between Cocolamus Creek and the present Juniata boundary, from "the middle of the long narrows, to the head of Cocolamus Creek," remained a part of Fermanagh Township until the creation of Mifflin County (which included present Juniata County), on September 19, 1787, when it was thrown into Perry County. This original township lying east of the Juniata, named Greenwood, is to-day divided into five townships and three boroughs. When the new county of Perry was erected, in 1820, there were already five townships west of the Juniata—Tyrone, Toboyne, Rye, Juniata and Saville, having been formed in the order named. The part east of the river at that time comprised but two townships, Greenwood and Buffalo.

The author is indebted to hundreds for information, but especially so to the following for help on many occasions: J. Earl Sheaffer, New Bloomfield, for assistance in searching files; W. Walter Branyan, Local Editor of the Record, Duncannon, for the use of a number of privately owned cuts of scenery; H. B. Kell and Alton J. Shumaker, Blain; E. C. Dile, Landisburg; S. Maurice Shuler, Liverpool, and H. G. Martin, Millerstown.

By referring to the history of the various townships following it will be seen that certain farms and parcels of property have been an integral part of various different subdivisions. Take the Duncannon Iron Company property as an example. In 1755 it was located in Tyrone Township, Cumberland County. After 1766 it was in Rye Township, Cumberland County. After 1820 it was in Rye Township, Perry County; after 1826, in Wheatfield Township, Perry County, and since 1840, in Penn Township, Perry County.

While the facts relative to the formation of the various townships will be found in the chapters relating to their history, yet the following tables, compiled by the author, may be of service. For the convenience of the reader a map showing the townships, as at present constituted, can be found on page 6. By reference to it the following table will be more easily understood.

FORMATION OF TOWNSHIPS.

TOWNSHIP	YR	FORMED FROM	LINE OF DESCENT, ETC.
Tyrone	1754	Original township	Comprised all of Perry county lying west of Juniata.
Toboyne	1763	Tyrone	Originally included Jackson and Madison.
Rye	1766	Tyrone	Originally included Penn, Wheatfield, Miller, Oliver, Juniata, Tuscarora, and parts of Centre and Carroll. Also sites of Newport and Bloomfield.
Greenwood	1767	Fermanagh	Fermanagh was an original township of the Purchase of 1754, in Cumberland county. Greenwood included that part of Perry east of Juniata river and south of Cocolamus creek. See Greenwood township chapter.
Juniata	1793	Rye	Originally contained all of Tuscarora and Oliver, and parts of Miller and Centre. Also sites of Newport and Bloomfield.
Buffalo	1799	Greenwood	Originally included all of Howe and Watts, and site of New Buffalo.
Saville	1817	Tyrone	Originally included a part of Centre and a small strip of Madison.

The seven townships named above were townships of Cumberland County, before Perry was formed, and became the original townships of the new County of Perry.

Oliver	1837	Juniata, Centre and Buffalo	Originally included part of Miller and all of *Howe. Also site of Newport.
Penn	1840	Wheatfield	Once part of Tyrone, then Rye, then Wheatfield.
Jackson	1844	Toboyne	First a part of Tyrone. Contains site of Blain.
Spring	1848	Tyrone and a strip of Centre
Watts	1849	Buffalo	Once part of Greenwood. New Buffalo within its confines.
Miller	1852	Oliver and Wheatfield
Tuscarora	1859	Greenwood and Juniata	*
Howe	1861	Oliver	Originally in Greenwood, then Buffalo, then *Oliver.

*In only two instances were lands from opposite sides of the Juniata combined in the same township. The first was in 1837, when that part of Buffalo which later became Howe was attached to Oliver and so remained for twenty-four years, when it became Howe Township. The other was when a petition was presented to the Court January 4, 1854, asking that the lines of Greenwood Township be altered, to include a portion of Juniata Township lying west of and along the Juniata River, in the Raccoon Valley. The petition was granted and it was a part of Greenwood Township until Tuscarora became a township, in 1859, when it became a part of Tuscarora.

It is impossible, in a volume of this size, to include all of the warrants and patents for the lands which comprise Perry County, as that would take several volumes alone, but some of the earlier or more prominent are included. In the case of the history of the churches it has been almost impossible to get facts. Manuscript sent out to authorities was never returned, with the result that much of the work along that line had to be done twice. The records are not as complete for those reasons, as were anticipated in the beginning, but will form a foundation upon which to build. Some of the history of the early mills and industries has been lost forever, much of it appears under a chapter devoted to that topic, and some is in the following chapters. In fact, much of the general matter in this volume could have been included in the township chapters, but had a more general bearing as county history.

BLOOMFIELD BOROUGH—THE COUNTY SEAT.

The story of the long fight for the county seat and the manner of New Bloomfield's selection is dwelt upon at length in the chapter in this book devoted to "The Fight for the County Seat." There was no town there then; it was on a farm formerly belonging to Thomas Barnett, from whom the Barnett families hailing from New Bloomfield have descended. Thomas Barnett had purchased the warrant rights to it in 1784 from David Mitchell, who had made some improvements upon it. The tradition is that Mitchell had settled there in 1743, but that is wrong, as the lands were not purchased from the Indians until 1754, and Mitchell's name is never mentioned in the provincial records among the squatters who were driven from the county, and according to these records all persons who had then presumed to settle north of the Kittatinny or Blue Mountain were driven out. There is evidence, however, that Mitchell did come in during the latter

Dear Miss Mastroianni -

Mother's Christmas letters kept me so occupied, that my own list was neglected; & hers wasn't completed. Last May, on her 80th birthday anniversary, she received more than one-hundred Greetings; & so many of these persons remembered her, again. I'll be taking care of those lists, for some time, yet.

My research & correspondence became very much retarded; & now, I do try to diversify my work.

Yesterday, I was at the Courthouse; & came home, wishing for a lot of spare time, & energy, to spend there.

In the Orphans' Court Docket, I checked & found the meagre documents on the Estate of John Comp, deceased, of Tyrone Twp. The "renunciation" of the widow, Susan, filed April 6, 1868, reveals the approximate date of his death. John Briner was the Administrator. The children's names were not stated. Obviously, there were other documents, which an attorney has not filed, or has "borrowed", thereafter, & never returned — as happened, in scores of Estates. There is another Docket, in which instruments were copied; & I hope to remember to check that, next time.

It was somewhat of a surprise & more of a disappointment, when my nearby aunt, Mrs. Trout, told me, one evening, that your grandmother had passed away. Just that morning, I had walked out to Jeffries' store; & when returning, I passed your grandmother's home — unaware of the situation — & decided that, by the next day, I would take a walk & stop to ask her certain questions. Too often, I delayed, likewise, too long.

I did mean to ask her (& saw yet ask Clarence Smith) for the names of the children of John & Susannah (Berryman) Comp. I know that Mrs. Geo. Warren & your great-grandmother were daughters & I've heard persons mention that there were two or three sons. Several miles north of town — toward Millerstown, there is a farm, once owned by Henry Comp, who had one daughter. ~~Possibly, Henry was a son of John & Susannah.~~ NO!

Last Summer, I went to visit an aged Mr. Hummell, who lives in Carroll Twp - in the western part of Fishing Creek Valley. I had understood that he lived alone & was quite deaf. When I reached his home, he was on a small ladder, picking sour cherries. He didn't resent my coming, & when he understood my query, he began naming the Smiths & was quite interested. It was so difficult to talk with him, but I learned that Betsy (Campbell) Hummell was his grandmother (a second wife — the former having died at Shamokin, before Levi Hummell came to Perry Co. He said, they called Mrs. Smith, aunt Katie; & he recalled that Jennie Yoke Shaffer had lived at or near Marysville. Mr. Hummell has an aged sister, living, in Cumberland Co. & I must try contacting her.

When I've made another effort, I'll assemble what I can, and forward

Dear Miss Mastroianni —

Probably, by the time that your interesting letter, concerning the Dunkelbergers, was in the mail, you received my letter, containing the published column, "Highland Campbells"

Vaguely, it seems that I had related the incident of obtaining that Campbell data. That aged lady, Maria Louisa Scholl Leech, had a wonderful memory; & "thanks" to John W. R. Campbell for directing me to her. One must remember that, at her age, & living alone, so long she could have "dreamed" more than the truth — yet, she stated, in each of my visits, that her brother George, had made inquiry, somewhere, concerning the Campbells, back in Scotland. I made quite a search, as I wanted to loan that to you; & our moving, twice, had it well buried among my boxes of material. I'm more than curious about the place of their settlement, when the came to America, at the time of William's birth; &, also, anything concerning the older son, Robert. It may be revealed, eventually!

Another item: When you first sent charts of what you had, on your several lines, & I saw the name of your great-great-grandmother, Susannah (Berryman) (Comp) Brown, I had a "hunch", which had remained with me, since. The other day, in one of my small note-books, it appeared — your great-grandmother Smith had once given me some data, including this — Susanna Berryman, born May 20, 1831, died Jan. 26, 1917, daughter of Edward & Susannah (May) Berryman. I well recall her & the small log house, not far from our store. Almost everyone called her "Mammy Brown". She was the 2nd wife of John Brown (her 2nd husband) John Brown was a son of George Brown (from East Berlin, Adams Co.) & Regina Schmidt (daughter of Johann Adam Schmidt Sr., brother of Karl, Sr.) John Brown's 1st wife was Catharina Lenig, daughter of Johann Jacob & Maria (Schmidt) Lenig [Maria was a daughter of Peter I & Barbara] When one really delves into those early family-lines, it becomes such a net-work of intermarriages, kinship, & alliance, that the study of it draws like a magnet. I can state it thus to you, & be understood!

Since you have contact with those persons who have the Dunkelberger records, I'm enclosing data which you should have, to compare with theirs. Your deductions concur with mine, as to Jonathan Sr. & Jr., while we must learn much more, concerning Jonathan Jr. & his family. Maybe Mrs Leech failed to recall that Mrs Hummell "had just reared Catharine M. Dunkelberger" (?)

By next time, I hope to have an item (or more), bearing upon the Hurtners. You are very considerate, in inquiring about our physical conditions. Mother is very much as you saw her, while I am slowly improving.

With best wishes for yourself, I close — Cordially, Harry Lenig

While we just cannot determine whether it applies to your Compe, or not, my copy of the record of New Bethel Zion Church, ator near Grimville, Greenwich Twp., Berks Co. keeps me wondering.

That Church - known, officially, as "The Greenwich Congregation"; was founded by Georg Kamp.

In 1761, the 1st Confirmation Class was in charge of the Rev. Daniel Schumacher.
" " , the land purchase; Cornerstone Laying (May 8) by the Rev. Bernhard Michael Hunsikl
" 1762, stone edifice Consecrated, Oct. 3 — named Bethel — Lutheran (with a privilege granted the Ger. Reformed Congregation
" 1803, Cornerstone of 2nd stone edifice, laid May 30.
" 1803, New Bethel Zion Lutheran Church, Consecrated, Nov 6.
" 1844 — Resolution & agreement to designate it "Union"
" 1923 - Cornerstone of 3rd edifice, laid July 22.

This Record extends from 1761 to 1802.

The First Articles of Government, dated Dec. 25, 1764, bears signatures of eighteen founders (to which has been added, in several instances, the the date of their arrival at Philadelphia, & the Ship)

The first name is Georg Kamp — who landed, Sep. 19, 1749, on the Ship, "Patience".

In 1778 a "Union" Agreement, signed by several, includes the name of Georg Kamp, Elder.

In 1796, the Consistory (or Council) of this Evangelical Lutheran Congregation under which the (then existing) schoolhouse was erected, consisted of:
Johann Georg Kamp, Founder & furtherer of the Congregation,
Elders: Peter Schmitt, Carl Wild, Johannes Derr, Simon Gruber,
Deacons: Johannes Witt, Andreas Kamp
Trustees: Johann Georg Kamp, Michael Crole

It sounds most interesting to me, & the Record includes many baptisms relative to families, later, in Perry Co. And, since we have no reason to know whether the Kamp baptisms, therein, can be correlated with your Compe, I believe that, when you come, again, you should search the Record & copy whatever you find interest in.

Even though I cannot correlate them, I've listed several Comp items, & he among them, a Conrad (1832-1896); Andrews (1812-1852), (1820-1886), (1838-1859), & the father of Andrew (b, 1812) The one, born 1838, was a son of Conrad & Hester.

And, I've listed Jacobs — (1785-1870), (1820-1885), (1825-1861), & Rev. Jacob (1845-1876)

There are also, Johns, Henrys, Samuels, & Williams; & , in these recent years, I've known of a James & an August Comp. It, apparently, presents a problem!

The contents of this letter seem much like a "poor job of raking". But, I had some of it in mind, a long time, & wanted to pass it along to you, & it may prove of some value to you.

Sincerely, Harry Lenig.

COMP

Dear Folk —

As the years passed (since back in the twenties) it became more & more certain that, instead of an effort to remember all of my research-friends with Greetings &, so often, an enclosed letter — which was always overtaxing me & never fully completed — it were better to keep them in mind, at other times during the year. And, as we experienced so many drastic changes, in our home-life & size of Christmas-family, when we took mother to the Nursing Home, on Dec. 23, 1965, & intended visiting her, on Christmas Day, I resigned from all else, & spend the day, each year, right here, I, myself, & me, with my pens, my books, & my nonsense, & hear the world go by. However, I do believe that, while I'm never lonely, the 'rabble' which passes, is, generally lonely & dissatisfied; always wanting, not properly seeking, & finding nothing. But, I find friends, or they find me, & there's so much, for which to live

Now, with thanks for the Greeting (while I seem to have become "non-Christmasie"), also, thanks, for the snap-shots. After weeks of dreaming & worrying over names beginning with "L", the sight of Lampin, set me on another course of thinking

Let us consider "C" as probable a à h".

In NE Berks Co., along old Rte 22, in Greenwich Twp., there are two hamlets, Krumville, & Grimville (a short distance eastward). Near the latter, is a beautiful modern-design stone church — New Bethel/Zion (Lutheran & Reformed) — known, early, as the Greenwich Congregation. Numerous families, from it, came to Perry Co.

The original (only Lutheran, until the Reformed families were granted privilege) was Dedicated, in 1762. And, to make the point, of a long, interesting story, the outstanding family, amongst the founders was Kamp (which has, also, been Kampff, Kamff, Kamf, Camp, Campff, Campf, & Comp.

Georg Kamp had landed, from the Ship, "Patience", Sep. 19, 1749, at Phila.

I feel almost positive that he was the Johann Georg Kamp, who died, in 1804/5; whose wife, Anna Maria (Koriner), died Sep. 24, 1795; & who had, at least, four sons — Heinrich (with wife, Eva), Friedrich (with wife, Margaretha), Georg Adam (with wife, Catherina), & Andreas (born Nov. 5, 1755) who married Maria Sophia Koller.

The latter couple were parents of, at least: Martin, Andreas, Anna Maria, Jacob Sr., Susannah, Daniel, Johannes, Margaretha Rebecca, Solomon, & Jonathan (b. & d. in Jan. 1797). 1 point 2 pts

Of those — Andreas (March 31, 1782 – Jan. 17, 1875) married Maria Schober (Jan 17, 1791 – Oct. 12, 1864) lived about three miles west of Bloomfield, on the very large tract, formerly owned by her parents, Sebastian & Maria Magdalena (Billmann) Schober. (Sebastian's name sometimes appears as Boston Shover) That tract extends far, south & west, toward Adam Frey's home.

And, Jacob Sr. (1785-1870) with wife, Margaretha, are buried in Markelsville Cem. (at my home-Church — now, closed!)

Realizing that your Abraham Frey was born in 1791, I must not dwell further on those — Andreas & Jacob. However, the birth-dates in that family cause one to wonder whether Eva Catharina, born in 1794, was a "Camp-m", of that family. This may prove to be another "elimination project!

Southwest, from Little Germany Valley, & less than a mile, north of Alinda, is a colony of homes, with the nearby Bolze Planing mill. Quite early, it was known as Milltown, Holmans or Hallmans Mills, & McAfee's Mills. The tract, of 48 acres, was warranted by Casper Compt, in 1795, & Patented by Conrad Hallman, in 1831. This, also, becomes "involving"!

It would seem that Casper had a son, Henry; & possibly, one, Conrad.

One of the several Smiths, who settled in Perry Co., was Abraham, a Revolutionary Soldier, from Berks Co., earlier, of Lowhland Twp., Chester Co.

Abraham Smith had a large family (his youngest son, Abraham P., married Catharina Frey, sister of my Abraham, son of Johannes) Of the 1st wife's children — Barbara, married Henry Comp; & Christiana married Johannes Foos II, later becoming the 3rd wife of Conrad Hallman (Holman) (1763-1841.

I've never checked for data, but am now curious — where did Henry Comp live; was he the son of Casper; who were his children? Even more; who were Casper's children? This sounds like an "All around the mulberry-bush" party; & presents possibilities!

That old Conrad Hallman, per Orphan's Court Records, had the following children — Elisabeth, Rachael, Rebecca, Mary (Polly), Isaac, Catharine, Sarah (Salome), William, John, Sophia, Abraham, Daniel, David, Susannah.

The first & second wives were sisters — Rachael & Salome Gress, of Juniata Co. Even though David, Abraham, & Susannah were minors, when their father died (1841), it doesn't reveal whether he had children by the 3rd wife Christiana (Smith) Foos. She had six Foos children.

DOCUMENTATION REQUIRED!

Of course, Abraham Hallman married Catharine Frey, dau. of Abraham, & Daniel Hallman married Mary Kell, dau. of Christian (whose sister was my ancestor, & whose brother was Dr. Lightner's)

Let us hope that, somewhere, in this "entanglement" there will be a clue to prove the parents of Eva Catharina (Kamp, Camp, Comp) Frey. I wouldn't like to become a poor guesser!

That old Abraham Smith, also, had a daughter, Mary, who married — ? Werts, & one, Rebecca, who married Peter Gehrling (Garlin). Adam Frey's daughter, Elisabeth, married a Gehling — but which one. Apparently, Georg Gehrling, was the first, in Perry Co., & from eastern Berks. Since Peter was born in 1804, sometimes I wonder whether his mother was a Frey. The Gehrlings (now, Garlin) lived in Little Germany Valley, near the Foos, Frey, Smith & Beistlein families. If you were in the eastern portion of that Valley, about a mile SE of Ludolph church, you may have seen the stone farm-house, where Georg Beistlein (from Blain) lived & died, as well as his son, Johannes — all buried at Ludolph church.

This will not reach you, until Monday, & cannot ruin your Christmas!

If we get about fifteen or twenty inches of snow, some up, in a sled & we'll explore Little Germany, Pine Knot, Old Oregon, Crawley Hill, Milltown, & other sea-ports!

I wish you & yours a very merry holiday season.

Sincerely, Harry Lenig.

Dear Mr. Yeager,

I have given you quite a rest, so here I am again. Can you help me in any way the birth date or the marriage of Catherine Comp dau. of Samuel Comp and Catherine Bear who married Daniel J. Yeager, son of Peter Yeager and Rebecca Shelp?

How was your summer? Oh was unusually warm here, so we had air-conditioning put in. I presume it is cooling off somewhat in Ga. by now.

Are you as busy as usual?

Hope you keep fairly well as I should be anxiously waiting for your reply.

Sincerely yours,

Helen M. Pomeroy

Dear Mr. Comp,

We are pleased to welcome you to The Perry Historians and thank you for your favorable comments. Enclosed is an application which lists our dues.

The family of Conrad & Esther Comp appears to be confusing and difficult to research. Buried at St. Paul Lutheran Churchyard, Madison Twp. are:

COMP, Conrod	May 31, 1873	75-8-8	23 SEPT 179
wf. Esther	Feb. 10, 1877	82-10-1	9 APRIL 1794
(The church burial records list him as Conrad, Sr.)
Esther "Mother"	May 27, 1896	75-4-14	13 JAN 1821
(The brief death notice lists her as "Miss".)

Records of the late Harry W. Lenig indicate that Conrad was a son of Casper who warranted land in Perry Co. in the 1790's but was in Windsor Twp., Berks Co. in the 1790 Census. Although I have not checked all the Windsor Twp. church records I did not find Casper or Conrad in the Bethel-Zion records where most of the Comps belonged.

I tried to determine the maiden name of Esther through the obituaries of their children but the obit of Conrad, Jr. did not mention his parents. Mr. Lenig shows Samuel (1807-1896) as a son of Conrad & Esther but his obit merely states he was born Aug. 2, 1807 in Little Germany and his parents moved to the D.J. Long farm when Samuel was small. I believe the below-mentioned person is a descendant but do not know if he has any Comp records: Mr. John Long 220 W. High St. New Bloomfield, PA 17068. Arlene Warner R.D. 2, Box 155 Shermansdale, PA 17090 is our most active Comp researcher but she is not descended from Conrad.

Unfortunately, the Lebanon, St. Peter & Mt. Zion records do not begin until the late 1850's although the St. Peter Reformed records mention an earlier record which apparently has been lost. It would be nice if the early records of St. Peter & Lebanon would turn up!

Incidentally, how could Conrad be Samuel's father when there were only 8 years different in their births?

Very truly yours,
THE PERRY HISTORIANS

76. PHILIPP GEORG MUELLER, of Meckesheim (Kreis Heidelberg), was permitted in 1749 to emigrate to the New Land with wife and two children, on payment of 10 florins emigration tax. Perhaps identical with the Pips Gorg Müller who arrived on the Ship Chesterfield, September 2, 1749 (List 126 C).

[One Filip Gorg Müller and wife Barbara had a son Johann Jacob baptized at the Egypt Reformed Church, March 6, 1754 (Pennsylvania Archives, 6th Ser. VI, 184).]

77. JOHANN MICHEL MUELLER, of Meckesheim (Kreis Heidelberg) was permitted in 1749, on payment of the tithe on his property, to emigrate to Pennsylvania "in hopes of better luck" [in Hoffnung besseren Glücks]. Johann Michel Müller arrived at Philadelphia on the Ship Speedwell, September 25, 1749 (List 135 C).

78. JACOB FREY, of Wieblingen (Kreis Heidelberg) was permitted in 1749 to emigrate gratis on payment of the tithe. Jacob Frey arrived at Philadelphia on the Ship Dragon, September 26, 1749 (List 136 C).

[Among the Jacob Freys in Pennsylvania is the Jacob Frey who in 1751 had a son Johann Jacob baptized at First Reformed Church, Reading; sponsor was Hans Adam Tiefetörfer (Hinke Collection). Other Jacob Freys lived at Perkasie, 1751; and between Philadelphia and Frankford, 1766 (Hocker, pp. 26, 35, 88).]

79. GEORG LINZ, of Asbach (Kreis Mosbach), received permission in 1749 to emigrate to the New Land on payment of the tithe. He had to pay in addition the sum of 10 florins to buy himself out of vassalage. With him in application and in the ship lists are Nos. 80 and 81, below. Jerg Lintz arrived at Philadelphia on the Ship Patience, September 19, 1749 (List 134 C).

[George Lintz (Lins) was resident of Heidelberg Township, Northampton (now Lehigh) County, in 1785 (with John), 1786 (with Martin and John), and 1788 (with Martin and John) (Pennsylvania Archives, 3d Ser. XIX, 122, 236, 327). Among the other bearers of the name before the Revolution were Anna Lintz, servant, New Hanover Township, Philadelphia (now Montgomery) County, who ran away in 1756 (Hocker, p. 59); and Sebastian Lintz, single, Longswamp Township, Berks County, 1759 (Montgomery, Berks County, p. 1049). A George Lentz (also spelled Lantz), which presumably is a different name, was found in Bethel Township, Lancaster County, Albany Township, Berks County, and East District Township, Berks County, in 1779.]

80. PHILIPP BRENNER, of Asbach (Kreis Mosbach) received permission in 1749 to emigrate to the New Land on payment of the tithe. He applied with Georg Linz (No. 79, above) and Georg Kumpff (No. 81, below), both of Asbach, and appears in the ship lists with them as Hans Philipp Brenner (with Philip Adam Brenner), arriving at Philadelphia on the Ship Patience, September 19, 1749 (List 134 C).

[Was this the Philipp Brenner, of Donegal Township, Lancaster County, whose will is dated July 29, 1783, and probated August 28, 1788? His wife was Ann, who with Philip Brenner [Jr.] was executor. Children were Catharine wife of Jacob Young, Ann wife of Jacob Hoffman, Susanna, Philip, and Elizabeth wife of John Gorner. A grandchild, Elizabeth Gorner, is listed also.

Other references include the birth of Philip Adam Brenner, son of Philipp and Maria Catharina Brenner, born January 8, baptized January 21, 1750 (Trinity Lutheran Church, Lancaster). Philipp and Anna Catharina (Klein) Brenner had a son Johann Philipp, born December 2, baptized December 10, 1752 (Trinity Lutheran Church, Lancaster). Another Philipp Adam Brenner, whose wife was Anna Maria nee Rudesill, had a child baptized December 10, 1752 (Trinity Lutheran Church, Lancaster). Philipp Brenner and wife were sponsors to Philipp Jacob Ziegler, son of Jacob Ziegler, Jr., of Lebanon, and wife Judith, in 1767 (Stoever Records, p. 52).]

81. GEORG KUMPFF, of Asbach (Kreis Mosbach) received permission to emigrate to the New Land in 1749 on payment of the tithe. He applied with Georg Linz (No. 79, above) and Philipp Brenner (No. 80, above) and appears with them in the ship lists as Hans Jörg Kamp (with Daniel Camp), arriving at Philadelphia on the Ship Patience, September 19, 1749 (List 134 C).

[Another Georg Gump, born October 9, 1709, came to Pennsylvania from Hüffenhardt, two miles from Heilbronn, in the Palatinate. He was a Lutheran and settled first at Monocacy in Maryland and in 1762 removed to York, Pennsylvania. He had married (1) in Europe, July 24, 1731, Rosina Mack (died June 6, 1769, aged 64). See Records of the Moravian Church, York (Publications of the Pennsylvania Genealogical Society, IV [1909], 326-327).

John Georg Gump was sponsor to Susanna Catarina, daughter of Heinrich Fortunee, of Monocacy, 1738 (Stoever Records, p. 12).]

82. WILHELM BESCH, of Mittelschefflenz (Kreis Mosbach), was permitted to go to Pennsylvania in 1749. Undoubtedly the Willhelm Bosch who arrived at Philadelphia on the Ship Patience, September 19, 1749 (List 134 C). The original (see facsimile, II, 457) has been misread.

[Wilhelm Besch settled at Schaefferstown in what is now Lebanon County, in 1749, where he joined the Schaeffers, Trautmanns, Brechts and others from his neighborhood in the Neckar Valley. He was a member of St. Paul's Reformed Church there. In 1758 he is listed as a taxpayer in Heidelberg Township, Lancaster

County (Egle, Lebanon County, p. 196). On December 29, 1750 John William Pesch and Anna Maria had a son John Andrew baptized; sponsors were John Andrew Peischlein and Elsa Rosina (Millbach Reformed Records, Hinke Collection). See also The History of St. Paul's United Church of Christ (Formerly St. Paul's Reformed) Schaefferstown, Pa. (Myerstown, Pennsylvania: Church Center Press, 1965), p. 121.]

83. JACOB BEHR, of Eberbach (Kreis Mosbach), received permission to emigrate to "England," i.e. New England, on payment of the tithe. He applied with Martin Treibel (No. 84, below) of Eberbach, and appears in the ship lists with him as Johann Jacob Ber, arriving at Philadelphia on the Ship Jacob, October 2, 1749 (List 140 C).

[Other Bär emigrants left Dossenheim in 1749, 1752, and 1757, some of them for "Carolina". See Gabriel Hartmann, "Amerikafahrer von Dossenheim im 18. Jahrhundert," Mannheimer Geschichtsblätter, XXVII (1926), cols. 55-58, republished in Pennsylvania Folklife, XXI:2 (Winter 1971-1972), 46-48. For the Bähr families of Weinheim a.d.Bergstrasse, see Pfälzische Familien- und Wappenkunde, XVII Jg., Bd. 6, Heft 7 (1968), 221-222.]

84. MARTIN TREIBEL, of Eberbach (Kreis Mosbach) received permission to emigrate to "England," i.e., New England, on payment of the tithe. He applied with Jacob Behr (No. 83, above) of Eberbach, and appears in the ship lists with him as Martin Treibel, arriving at Philadelphia on the Ship Jacob, October 2, 1749) (List 140 C).

[Martin Trible, farmer, is listed as resident of Bethlehem Township, Northampton County, in 1772 (Pennsylvania Archives, 3d Ser. XIX, 26).]

85. PETER EHRET, of Mittelschefflenz (Kreis Mosbach), was permitted in 1749 to emigrate to "New England," on payment of the tithe.

[Peter Ehret first appears in Pennsylvania records in the Colebrookdale Township tax list, Berks County, 1752. In the records of the Oley Hills Church, Berks County, is the baptism of John George Ehret, May 26, 1754, son of Peter "Erred" and wife Maria Christina, both Reformed. Sponsors: George Schall, single son of Tobias Schall, and Eva Barbara, single daughter of Stephan Hauck. Tobias Schall (No. 72, above), also from Mittelschefflenz, had emigrated in 1748 and settled in the Dryville, Berks County, area, and appears in the Mertz's (Beaver Creek) church register.

The Pennsylvanische Berichte for April 1, 1758, contains a reference to Peter Eret of "Koolbruckdel," Berks County (Hocker, p. 72).

Peter Ehret moved to Northampton County, where he is listed in the Bethlehem Township tax lists for 1766. He died intestate in 1779. Letters of administration were granted to George Ehret and John Ehret

Dear Daniel,

Thank you for your very interesting phone conversation regarding the COMP family history.

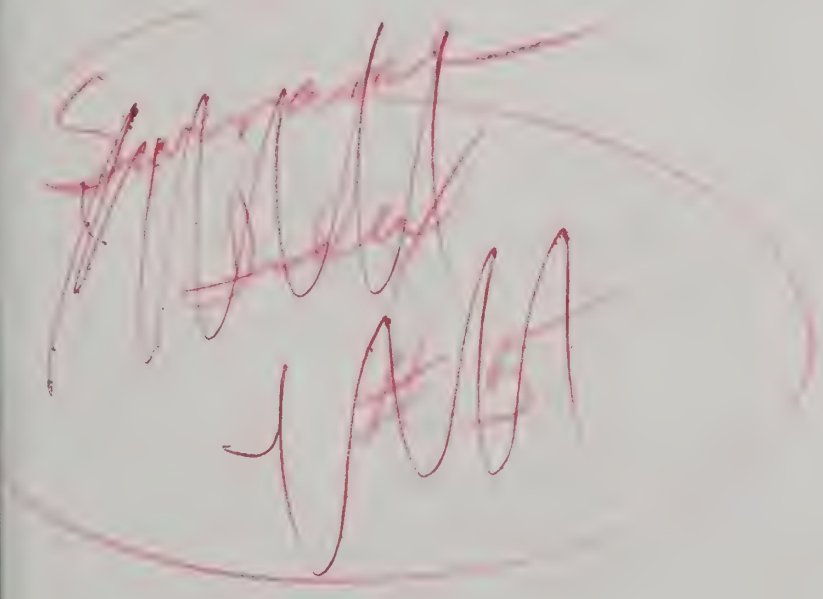

Enclosed are copies of my family sheets, a copy of the death certificate of Josiah (Paul's great grandfather), abstracts of COMP death records from the Perry County Courthouse and some tombstone inscriptions.

I apologize for the delay in mailing these copies. The weekend following our conversation we left for a weeks vacation in Williamsburg, VA. I'm afraid my mind still desires to be 'on vacation'.

Have you any information on Henery Comp. The 1790 Census shows him as living in Eastern Cumberland County. Many years ago Mr. Harry Lenig speculated to me about Henry being Paul's ancestor.

I look forward to hearing from you in the future and thank you for revitalizing my interest in our family genealogy.

Sincerely,
Brenda Hartzell

23 JULY 1988

DEAR BRENDA.

THANK YOU VERY MUCH FOR TAKING THE TIME TO DISCUSS THE "COMP" FAMILY GENEALOGY WITH ME ON JULY 6TH.

AS I INDICATED OVER THE PHONE. I AM CURRENTLY IN THE PROCESS OF COMPUTERIZING MY GENEALOGY RECORDS (NEARLY 7000 FAMILY HISTORIES FROM 1733). THE END IS IN SIGHT. AND I HOPE TO GET BACK TO SERIOUS RESEARCH SOON. OF PARTICULAR INTEREST ARE THE "COMPS".

AS WE DISCUSSED. IT WOULD APPEAR THAT WE HAVE A COMMOM ANCESTOR IN CONRAD COMP. IF YOU WOULD BE SO KIND TO SEND TO ME ALL OF THE DATA YOU HAVE ACCUMULATED ON THE COMP'S. I'LL COMBINE THE INFO WITH MINE ON THE COMPUTER. HOPEFULLY. WE'LL BE ABLE TO ANSWER SOME OF THE "MYSTERIES". I'LL CERTAINLY PROVIDE YOU WITH A COPY. ALSO.

BRENDA. YOUR KIND ASSISTANCE IS MOST APPRECIATED!!!

VERY TRULY YOURS.

DANIEL S. L. COMP

Brenda, If you have access to a Xerox machine, just copy obit, birth, death records, etc., and let me know the cost. I'll reimburse you -
Thanks - Dan

THE PAUPER SCHOOL CHILDREN LISTS

by Harry A. Focht

Buried within the tax assessment records of Perry County for the years from 1820 to 1840 is a body of genealogical data which, to a great extent, are not available in any other records. These are the lists of children whose parents were not able to pay for their schooling. Due to the penurious condition of the parents few would have been able to own real estate, thus negating the possibility of finding deeds or estates containing genealogical data. Not only do these lists provide the names of the children and their respective ages or dates of birth but they also give the name of one of the parents. Like many ages given in the federal census schedules, you will find that the ages of these children often are not accurate.

Prior to the Free School Act of 1834, Pennsylvanians who wished to provide their children with any education had to pay for it whether at a private or parochial school. As early as 1683 the Penn government made provision for a rudimentary education of children but it was the Pennsylvania Constitution of 1790 which led to the passage of legislation on April 4, 1809 that required the tax assessors of each township to enumerate "...all children between the ages of five and twelve, whose parents were unable to pay for their schooling...", the education of said children to be provided by the township free of charge. Thus, the rise of the term "Charity Schools" and the ill-will of many who were too proud to allow their children to be educated at the public expense.

The tax records in which these lists of pauper school children were found consist of two types. The pauper lists appearing in the first part of this publication are taken from the assessors' duplicates which contain the majority of these lists. The remainder of the lists are taken from the rate books which frequently cover a three year period of time.

Although some of the orthography was difficult to decipher, we have given the names, to the best of our ability, exactly as we found them. Any changes or additions appear in parentheses. While the format used in these lists varied from one to the other, we have followed one format throughout this publication, mainly to simplify the matter of printing the data. However, this may lead to some mis-information. Although we have used the term "Children of..." this does not necessarily mean that every child listed was a child of that adult, especially in cases where the surname of the child differs from that of the adult. We are sure that quite a few of these children were step-children or that the adult listed was actually a guardian. While we used the plural (Children of...) throughout but, in many instances, listed only one child does not mean that we missed any names; this was done merely for uniformity in typing and printing.

The pauper lists given here are all that were found in the extant tax assessment records in the courthouse. The townships formed by 1820, their date of formation, and parent township were: Tyrone (original township, 1754); Toboyne (1763, Tyrone); Rye (1766, Tyrone); Greenwood (1767, Fermanagh); Juniata (1793, Rye); Buffalo (1799, Greenwood); Saville (1817, Tyrone). The townships formed between 1820 and the passage of the Free School Act of 1834 were: Liverpool (1823, Greenwood); Wheatfield (1826, Rye) included all of Penn and parts of Miller, Centre, and Carroll Townships; Centre (1831, (Saville, Juniata, Wheatfield, and Tyrone) included parts of Oliver, Miller, Carroll, and Spring Townships; Carroll (1834, Tyrone, Rye, and Wheatfield) included part of Spring Township.

Here, then, we present a list of children between the ages of five and twelve years during the period from 1820 until 1840 whose parentage may otherwise not be determinable. We have checked and found no such lists in the assessments of Cumberland County, the mother county of Perry County.

LITTLE GERMANY VALLEY

by Harry W. Lenig

Situated southeast of Elliottsburg, Perry County, is Little Germany Valley - bordered on the north by Mahanoy Ridge and on the south by Germany Ridge. Both ridges were underlaid with iron ore which was mined during the period of Perry Furnace, located in the east end of Green Briar Valley, next south. The late William J. Sheibley of Blue Ball and Landisburg related that geologists term such valley as a "fault," due to that portion not underlaid with ore falling, following the heating and cooling of the area.

The tracts of land in the valley were first acquired by warrants, orders of survey, etc. by Joseph Ball (421 acres), Standish Ford (212 acres), Joseph Richards (421 acres), Mathias Pearson, Johannes Fuss (Foose), and others. The late Gen. Frank E. Tressler pointed to the fact that, generally, those warrantees and claim-holders (commonly called "land sharks") chose ridge land rather than level valley land, with possible minerals and ore in mind. Quite often, they soon sold the tract and sought tracts in areas farther west in the state. The Pearson tract, acquired in 1788, caused much controversy with a portion finally passing to Georg Haller and others in 1811, to Daniel Peipher from Germany, Samuel Fisher, and others.

Surveyor's draft of a tract of land belonging to John Foose, Jr. in Little Germany. Note the adjoining tract marked "School Lands."

Thomas Kinkaid held a "plantation" of 100 acres, more or less, which he conveyed in 1777 to Georg Schade. In 1788 it passed to Johann Jacob Breiner from Albany Twp., Berks Co., in 1790 to Abraham Kistler, Sr. of Kistler Valley, Northampton Co., and, in 1794, to Johann Anthony Kimble (Kimmel) who came from Greenwich Twp., Berks Co.

Johannes Fuss (Foose) was not from Germany as published histories would infer. As a son of Johan and Maria Barbara Fuss, he was born August 13, 1768 and baptized August 28, 1768 according to the parish records of New Bethel Zion Church near Grimville, Berks Co. "John Fuas" warranted a survey of 160 acres in Tyrone Twp. on April 12, 1794 (no patent recorded) and 160 acres on June 12, 1794 which was later patented by John Foose, Daniel Foose, and John M. Foose. Another tract of 109 acres was warranted on the same date which was patented by John Foose.

Abraham Smith, Sr., a Revolutionary Soldier, from Berks Co., but a native of Lancaster Co., purchased a farm south of Daniel Peipher's. Eberhard Lotman from Lancaster Co., purchased a farm but soon sold and purchased one in Pleasant Valley, south of Mannsville. Frederick Flick also owned a tract in the same area.

David Shade held an "improvement plantation" which he sold on December 2, 1788 to Herman Donath, a schoolmaster from Berks Co. for 30 pounds. On August 14, 1802 Herman Donath and Barbara his wife conveyed to Rev. Henry Ludolph Spark of Franklin Co. the said "improvement" and another containing two acres. Histories infer that Rev. Mr. Spark was the first schoolmaster and built the first school house in the valley. The deed from David Shade states "whereon Donath lives." The minister-schoolmaster Spark bequeathed his real estate to the neighborhood "for school purposes", and was buried in the earliest burial plot in the valley which has, during the years, been very much desecrated. No gravemarker can be found for him. The writer's ancestor, Johann Georg Ohlinger III, from Ruscombmanor Twp., Berks Co. owned two properties in that valley and, with wife or wives, may also rest in that nearby burial plot in the woods.

Georg Schade also held an "improvement plantation" in the valley and, on November 1, 1777, conveyed his "rights" to William Bittner from whom it passed, on November 1780, to Christian Haller (also from Berks Co.) and, from the Haller heirs to a son, Georg Haller. It contained, by computation, 50 acres, more or less. On May 27, 1796 Georg Haller and Sophia his wife conveyed it to Johannes Reinschmidt of Northampton Co.; Johannes Reinschmidt and wife Susannah conveyed it to Georg Haller on April 23, 1799. By 1824 Georg Haller had migrated to Jackson Twp., Montgomery Co., Ohio.

Peter Weber had acquired a tract of 53 acres which he patented on March 14, 1812. On May 4, 1812, Peter Weber and his wife Elisabeth (Dietzel) conveyed the same to Christian Breneman of York Co., from whom it passed to Michael Foose on March 3, 1818. Michael Foose and his wife Susannah conveyed it to John Foose on March 3, 1826 who conveyed it to Samuel and Peter Garling on April 6, 1829. Samuel Garling and wife Hannah and Peter Garling and wife Rebecca conveyed it to Johannes Frey on March 3, 1834 who, with his wife Elisabeth, conveyed it to Abraham Frey on April 5, 1858. Abraham Frey and wife Statira (Marshall) conveyed it to John Baker on October 24, 1865. The Heirs of John Baker, viz. Catharine, wife of William Power; Henry Baker; Martin Baker; M. Elizabeth, wife of Abraham Diehl; and Sarah J. Baker conveyed 44 acres to Samuel Dile for $400.00 on March 13, 1882. Johannes Frey and his son Abraham were the writer's ancestors.

Sebastian Schober (also known as Boston Shover), a blacksmith from northeastern Berks Co. who married Maria Magdalena Bilman, became owner of 219 acres which he patented in 1826 and, in the same year, sold to Georg Beistlein, a wagonmaker of Tyrone Twp. He erected a stone house where three generations of Beistleins lived. The house was razed several years ago.

The early German farmers in the Elliottsburg area desired another road - a more direct route to the West-Gibson Mill and, together made a road which extended eastward from the Clarence Dum farm; thence southward through woodland to the Beistlein land and eastward through Little Germany Valley; over the water-shed to the area long known as "Pine Knot"; thence southward over Crawley Hill, past the later location of Perry Furnace and the James McCord area to the Westover Mill. Directly east of the late school house in Little Germany Valley the early burial plot was situated on the west side of this road. The late Amos Rice and the writer searched the plot in 1941. His grandfather, John Rice, stated in a newspaper article in 1896 that the plot contained at least one hundred graves and that it was then almost fifty years since the last burial. The road was not a township road but one of the commonly known "community roads"; was never closed to the public and is a "right-of-way" to this cemetery.

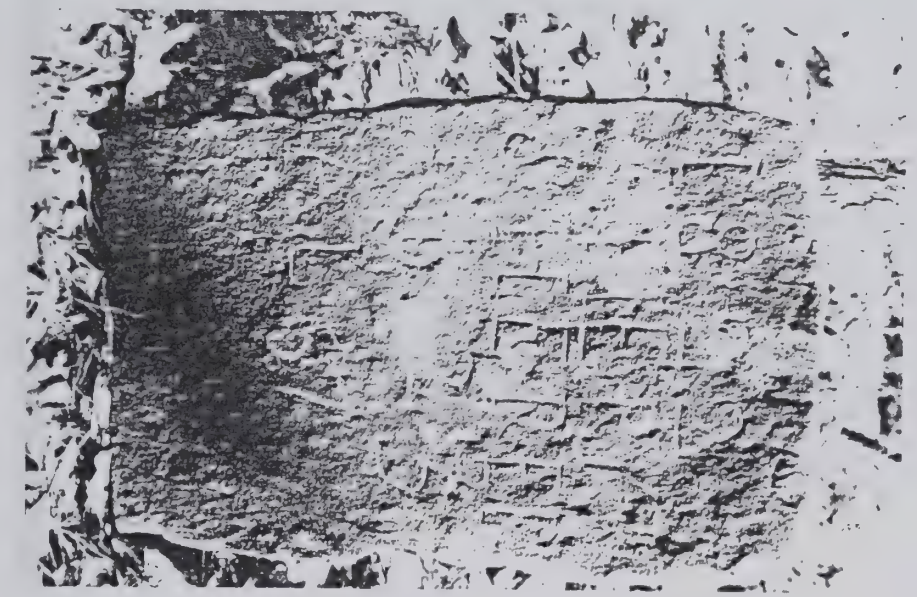

The tract next east of the Beistlein tract was owned by Nicholas Scherer from eastern Berks Co. Apparently it included the farm south of the public road at Pine Knot. Peter Scherer (Shearer) also warranted a tract of 128 acres in 1816. In 1820 he sold to Abraham Frey (son of Adam). Adam Frey (probably Johann Adam, son of Andreas) who may have come from eastern Berks Co., "located" on a tract of 100 acres east of the Scherer lands. He obtained a warrant on October 3, 1806 which was surveyed in 1808. Adam Frey died in 1815 and the executors delayed the settlement and failed to pay the taxes. Sheriff Jesse Miller sold the tract to John M. Smith, a tailor, who, in 1825, conveyed it to Abraham Fulweiler, Esq. Later, the tract, like much of the area, became involved in the holdings of William Logan Fisher and Charles W. Morgan, ironmasters. Eastward from Adam Frey's land no individual, excepting William Power, held any tracts until 1860 or later. Later Clouser purchases led to the name "Clouser Valley."

Georg Gehrling (now Garlin), who may have been a son-in-law of Adam Frey, Johannes Haller, and Georg Schade purchased portions of the large tract owned by Johann Anthony Chateau (Shatto). Georg Gehrling came from Greenwich Twp., Berks Co. (possibly from "Oley") and was apparently the pioneer of the Perry County Gerlings, Garlings, Garlands, and Garlins.

Johan Anthony and Nicholas Shatto held several tracts in Perry County while their brother, Heinrich, came with them from York Co. and soon migrated to Ohio. Earlier, while yet in eastern Berks Co., their sister, Anna Christina Margaretha Chateau, became the wife of Johann Martin Bernheisel who came to Perry County and purchased the William McClure tract at Loysville. Their father, Jean Nichol Chateau, arrived at Philadelphia in September 1739. He was of a Huguenot family and while in eastern Pennsylvania married Maria Eva , a Roman Catholic. By 1752 they were living in the Bermudian area of present Adams Co. and were in Dover Twp., York Co. as late as 1797. Other spellings of the surname were Schatteau, Scheddo, Schedo, Shadow, Shado, and Shatto.

Jacob Scholl (Shull), whose parentage has not been determined, was also a land

The only inscribed stones in the old burial ground located in the woods east of the school house in Little Germany Valley: Mery Sherer died April 25, 1822, aged 57; S. C.

owner in Little Germany Valley. The Fuenfrocks and Schlifers of the area also came from Berks Co. Daniel Peipher and Johannes Riebsame (Reapsome) were possibly the only persons in the valley who came directly from Germany. Casper Kamp (Comp) has not been identified; yet, may have come to Perry County with Heinrich and Jacob Kamp from the Grimville area of Berks Co. Jacob and Justina (Hahn) Kamp from Berks Co. had a small home in the area. After Jacob's death Justina became the second wife of Johann Georg Ohlinger III.

Peter Wertz, probably a son of Dewalt Wertz, married Mary Foose and lived and died in the valley. Heinrich Reis (Rice) purchased a large tract west of the Kinkaid-Peipher tract where he and his son Benjamin reared large families. At a later date John Reeder brought his family from western Perry County. The Diehls, Stahls, Korngeobels, Pecks, Alberts, and Kitners were also later residents.

The Reapsome stone house built in 1859, on the Daniel Peipher tract.

RE-DEDICATION SERVICES AT ST. ANDREWS CHURCH

Reprinted from The Newport News-Sun, April 26, 1942

A fair audience of members and friends attended the re-dedication of St. Andrew's Evangelical Lutheran Church, at Eshcol, on Easter Sunday. The newly decorated and carpeted sanctuary gave renewed spirit to the re-dedication and Easter Communion service, administered by the pastor, Rev. J. M. Scharf, assisted by Rev. William Lowe.

At a destructive and agitated period, such as this, more Lutherans and other professing Christians should have attended the service and revered this oldest congregation of Christians in the Big Buffalo Creek Valley.

Prior to 1812, due to the distance from their Union Lutheran and Reformed churches, at Loysville and New Bloomfield, occasional services were conducted by their pastors in their homes and school houses.

During 1812, Dr. Frederick Oberhauser, a native of Holland, who was practicing medicine near Blain, began preaching to the Lutherans in Saville Township. For about two years he preached in the homes of Andrew Shuman (at the Eshcol mill) and Philip Christ (in Buckwheat Valley). In 1815 he confirmed Peter, Henry, Elizabeth and Margaret Long, Daniel and Rebecca Hall, Daniel Sunday, Isaac Frantz, Nicholas Lyons, John Crist, Elizabeth Beistlein and Sarah Hartman.

Dr. Oberhauser died in 1821, and during the following years Rev. John Wm. Heim preached, occasionally, at or near Ickesburg. A subscription, dated September 16, 1829, decided the erecting of a church near the lower Shuman Mill. On April 3, 1830, Andrew Shuman and wife sold one acre of land to trustees appointed for the Buffalo German Lutheran and Reformed Church. Andrew Shuman (Lutheran) and John Bealor (Reformed, from Markelsville) were the building committee. A log edifice was erected in 1831 and the Gospel was preached in it during that year. In 1833, a gallery on three sides, pews and the high pulpit was provided. A retired minister of another denomination has informed the writer that it was a very impressive sanctuary, even as he saw it in its abandoned years. The "Perry Forester" reported, "The German Lutheran and Reformed Church, at Shuman's mill, was consecrated on Wednesday, May 15, 1833." The church was named St. Andrew's. The congregations continued to prosper many years.

Following the organization of a Reformed organization, in Ickesburg, St. Andrew's Reformed grew weaker, until it disbanded. We have no information concerning it, excepting the names of the five German Reformed members, subscribed to the constitution in 1830: John, Daniel and Joseph Bealor and George Keyser, of Markelsville, and Adam Stutzman, of Sugar Run Valley.

The Lutheran congregation administered to the families of Anders, Beistline, Long, Swartz, Lyons, Shuman, Compa, Markel, Pickard, Hartman, Hall, Christ, Frantz, Sunday, Kleckner, Yohn, Orris, Flickinger, Reisinger, Kochenderfer, Jacobs, Utley, Yeager, Smith, Barrick, Zimmerman, Peck, Wallet, Wagoner, Kretzing, Maul, Survell, Campbell, Frey, Hench, Spriggle, Steinberg, Trostle, Baker, Paden, Klinepeter, Rice, McKee, Glock, Clouser, Burrell and numerous other families.

THE PERRY FORESTER
MAR 5 1919
1983-1984

In the year 1833, the Lutheran congregation built the present edifice (to which our grandfather, Henry S. Lenig, contributed $150.00, which, together with the confirmations of our Kochenderfer kin, in the original sanctuary, makes it all of direct interest to us). The congregation deserves praise for their loyalty, as a small, struggling group.

We would appreciate a report in these columns of any existing photo of the original edifice.

We might also state that we have the certificate of the baptism of our great-grandfather, John Kochenderfer, administered in 1816 by Dr. Oberhauser. And of Dr. Oberhauser's large Dutch and Latin library, many volumes of which were purchased by Rev. G. R. Heim, we have at least two volumes.

roughly dressed stranger happening there, inquired if a Mrs. Vincent lived in that vicinity. She was pointed out to him, whereupon he introduced himself to her notice, and soon convinced her that he was her long lost husband. The hilarity of the party was doubtless much increased by this unexpected but joyful reunion; which as I am informed by a descendant, took place at the tavern, and not, as reported, after the party had broken up and on the return home.

Capt. Little returned to find his wife, deceived by false information of his death in captivity, married to another man. Explanations ensued. Letters detailing his death were proved to have been received, their falsehood was evident — the false husband fled the country, and the pair so long and cruelly separated were re-united.

To this sketch of Freeland's Fort I add a most interesting and graphic narrative of Benjamin Patterson, the hunter, published in Judge McMaster's History of Steuben county. He says: At the skirmish of Freeling's Fort in 1779, he and his younger brother Robert fought in the party of Capt. Hawkins Boone, and narrowly escaped with their lives. Freeling's Fort on the West Branch of the Susquehanna, had been taken by a party of Tories and Indians, the former under the command of McDonald, a noted loyalist of Tryon county in New York, and the latter led by Hiakatoo, the husband of Mary Jennison, the white woman. Capt. Boone's party of thirty-two, volunteered to scout in the neighborhood of the captured Fort, and to attack the enemy if it could be advantageously done. They advanced cautiously and succeeded in concealing themselves in a cluster of bushes overlooking the camp of the enemy. Both Tories and Indians were engaged in cooking or eating, while a single sentinel, a fine tall savage, with a blanket drawn over his head, walked slowly to and fro. Boone's men commenced firing by platoons of six. The sentry sprang into the air with a whoop and fell dead. The enemy yelling frightfully ran to arms and opened a furious but random fire at their unseen foes. Their bullets rattled through the bushes where Boone's men lay hid, but did no mischief. The slaughter of indians and tories was dreadful. The thirty two rangers firing rapidly and coolly by sixes, with the unerring aim of frontiersmen, shot down one hundred and fifty (so the story runs) before the enemy broke and fled. Boone's men with strange indiscretion, rushed from their covert in pursuit, and immediately exposed their weakness of numbers. Hiakatoo with his Indians made a circuit and attacked them in the rear, while McDonald turned upon their front. They were surrounded. "Save yourselves, men, as you can," cried Capt. Boone. The enemy closed with tomahawks and spears. This part of the fight occurred in the midst of the woods. The rangers broke through their foes and fled with such success that many escaped, but their Captain and more than half his men were killed.

Patterson further relates the particulars of his own escape, with others of the rangers, and their pursuit by a party of the enemy, while on the return trip to Niagara.

The discrepancies in these several narratives are in a great measure reconciled by the fact that each writer told what he saw and knew, without observing what was the condition of affairs at other points; and having no persons with whom to compare and correct their respective remembrances. But the killing of one hundred and fifty Indians and Tories at Fort Freeland on that occasion seems to need confirmation, and is certainly not sustained by any authority which I have consulted. "The hunter" seems to have been drawing upon his imagination.

HUSKING BEE A BORROWED INDIAN CUSTOM

Colonial farmers adopted not only many agricultural practices from the Indians concerning corn, but they borrowed at least one social custom, too.

Indian corn culture already had differentiated between regular corn crops and the more succulent sweet corn varieties believed developed by the Iroquois Indians.

Recipes for succotash and hasty pudding, also called loblolly, also were borrowed from the Indians. One facet of the corn diet the colonists didn't adopt was the addition of dog meat. They preferred the more customary salt beef, salt pork or chicken.

While the borrowing of many of these practices from the Indians are well recognized, lesser known is the belief that even the husking bee originated with the Indians. This combination of work and frivolity was popular on early farms.

One custom that developed dictated any man who husked an ear of corn laden with red kernels could claim a kiss from any girl at the bee. A form of this practice was part of the culture of the Iroquois.

Dear Harriett,

I am seeking information on the LAY / Comp family. Though we may have had previous communications on the subject, I have enclosed 14 form sheets in duplicate for your review for accuracy as well as recording of additional information you may have. Please retain one set of the forms for your use and future reference. After you have reviewed and completed the second set as best able, please return it to me in the enclosed self-addressed stamped envelope.

I am most interested in having an opportunity to "copy" or receive a copy of any birth certificates, death certificates, marriage certificates, newpaper clippings, obituary notices, etc., that you may have concerning the above family/families. Please advise of any that you may have and I will make arrangements with you for "copying" and return to you.

Your assistance is greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Daniel L. Comp

Dear Harriet,

If you can provide addresses and/or telephone numbers for any members (or descendants) of the Frank P. Morrison Family, the Samuel N. Hay, Jr. Family, the William J. Garlin* Family or the John A. Dake Family, I would appreciate your writing that information on the back side of this sheet and returning it with the others.

(1) Question - Was Isabella F. Hay also known as ISABELLA FRANCIS LAY?

(2) QUESTION - In 1880, NORMAN CRULL, age 3, was living with Samuel and Angeline Hay and was listed as a son. Do you have any idea of his relationship to the family?

* I specifically need MRS. Theodore Bard's address.

Thanks - Very Truly Yours -

Daniel O. L. Corp

While we just cannot determine whether it applies to your Comps, or not, my copy of the record of New Bethel Zion Church, at or near Grimville, Greenwich Twp., Berks Co. keeps me wondering.

That Church — known, officially, as "The Greenwich Congregation"; was founded by Georg Kamp.

In 1761, the 1st Confirmation Class was in charge of the Rev. Daniel Schumacher.
" " , the land purchase; Cornerstone Laying (May 18) by the Rev. Bernhard Michael Hausih
" 1762, stone edifice Consecrated, Oct. 3 — named Bethel — Lutheran (with a privilege granted the Ger. Reformed Congregatio
" 1803, Cornerstone of 2nd stone edifice, laid May 30.
" 1803, New Bethel Zion Lutheran Church, Consecrated, Nov. 6.
" 1844 — Resolution & agreement to designate it "Union"
" 1923 — Cornerstone of 3rd edifice, laid July 22.

This Record extends from 1761 to 1802.

The First Articles of Government, dated Dec. 25, 1764, bears signatures of eighteen founders (to which has been added, in several instances, the the date of their arrival at Philadelphia & the Ship)

The first name is Georg Kamp — who landed, Sep. 19, 1749, on the Ship, "Patience".

In 1778 a "Union" Agreement, signed by several, includes the name of Georg Kamp, Elder.

In 1796, the Consistory (or Council) of this Evangelical Lutheran Congregation under which the (then existing) schoolhouse was created, consisted of:
Johann Georg Kamp, Founder & furtherer of the Congregation,
Elders: Peter Schmitt, Carl Ahl, Johannes Derr, Simon Gruber,
Deacons: Johannes Witt, Andreas Kamp
Trustees: Johann Georg Kamp, Michael Crole

It sounds most interesting to me, & the Record includes many baptisms relative to families, Lehr, in Perry Co. And, since we have no reason to know whether the Kamp baptisms, therein, can be correlated with yours Comps, I believe that, when you come, again, you should search the Record & copy whatever you find interest in.

Even though I cannot correlate them, I've listed several Comp items, & have among them, a Conrad (1832-1896); Andrew (1812-1852), (1810-1876) (1838-1859) & the father of Andrew (b. 1812) The one, born 1838, was a son of Conrad & Hester.

And, I've listed Jacobs — (1785-1870), (1820-1885), (1825-1861), & Rev. Jacob (1845-1876)

There are also, Johns, Henrys, Samuels, & Williams; & in these recent years, I've known of a James & an August Comp. It, apparently, presents a problem!

The contents of this letter seem much like a "poor job of raking". But, I had some of it in mind, a long time, & wanted to pass it along to you, as it may prove of some value to you.

Sincerely, Harris Lewis.

Introduction

The records of Saint Peter's Church, Middletown, date from 1794, although the congregation itself is several decades older. Through the kindness of Pastor Richard E. Geib the records have been translated by the undersigned, where necessary, and transcribed under his supervision by Mrs. W. E. Hutchison.

Persons interested in these families would do well also to consult the personal register of baptisms and marriages performed by the Rev. Mr. Traugott Friedrich Illing (1729-1800), an Anglican clergyman who served St. Peter's and other Lutheran congregations. These have been published by E. W. S. Parthemore under the title, Register of Marriages and Baptisms kept by the Rev. Traugott Frederick Illing, in 1891. The original of this journal is also in the parish's archives.

This evidently is the family that remained in Beerfelden. A letter dtd 5 Sept 1974 from Karl Heins Becker, D6091 Trebur, Im Heckgrund 1, indicated his grandfather Ludwig Rauenzahner was born in 1884 and died 10 Nov 1794, age 90. He had only daughters. John Ludwig Rauenzahner b. 1884 was the son of Georg Wilhelm Rauenzahner b. 1846. Wilhelm's father was Johann Ludwig Rauenzahner b. 1812. Ludwig's father was georg Michael b. 1789. Georg Michael could be his father as he would of been 26 when he was born.

In 1978, Evelyn Penrose of Sunnyvale, CA a correspondent, had a delightful visit with Carl Heniz Becker and his mother in Beerfelden. Baria Rauenzahner Becker indicated that her father had only sisters, and Ludwigh had only daughers, so the name has died out there. Carl Heinz is the only child of Maria Beckers' husband died during WWII on the Russian front, and was never dound.

THE LOYSVILLE CHARGE

LEBANON CHURCH AT LOYSVILLE

AT AN EARLY DATE A NUMBER OF LUTHERAN FAMILIES SETTLED IN TYRONE TOWNSHIP, IN A DISTRICT OF COUNTRY IN THE CENTRE OF WHICH LOYSVILLE WAS AFTERWARDS LOCATED.

THE LEBANON CHURCH EDIFICE WAS BUILT AND IN 1808 WAS KNOWN AS "THE WHITE CHURCH".

PAGE 34

AT THE MEETING OF SYNOD IN JUNE, 1819, AT BALTIMORE, MD., REV. HEIM WAS PERMANENTLY ORDAINED AS A MINISTER OF THE GOSPEL. IN THE SPRING OF 1821 (?), REV. HEIM CONFIRMED AT LOYSVILLE A CLASS OF SEVENTY-ONE CATECHUMENS. THE FOLLOWING PERSONS ARE SOME OF THEM:

CONRAD COMP (RM PAF-1582)

IN MAY, 1848, REV. HEIM CONFIRMED AT LOYSVILLE A CLASS OF CATECHUMENS (THE LAST CLASS HE CONFIRMED HERE), CONSISTING OF THE FOLLOWING SIXTEEN PERSONS:

MR. _____ COMP
MR. _____ COMP

REV. P. WILLARD OF DANVILLE, MONTOUR COUNTY, PA., ACCEPTED A CALL AT THE CHURCH AT ANDESVILLE (LOYSVILLE), PA.

PAGE 60

REV. WILLARD, "AS HIS MANNER WAS," VISITED FROM HOUSE TO HOUSE, "REASONING WITH THEM OUT OF THE SCRIPTURES," AND CATECHIZING AND PREACHING ALMOST INCESSANTLY, AND EVERYWHERE SINNERS WERE AWAKENED AND THE HEARTS OF CHRISTIANS MADE GLAD. ON THE 5TH OF APRIL, 1857, THE FOLLOWING PERSONS WERE AT LOYSVILLE ADMITTED TO FULL COMMUNION BY CONFIRMATION:

ANDREW COMP
GEORGE COMP
MISS CATHARINE COMP
MISS SARAH A. COMP

PAGE 63

AFTER THE RESIGNATION OF REV. WILLARD, THE CHARGE WAS VACANT ABOUT SIX MONTHS, AND CONSISTED NOW OF THE FOLLOWING CONGREGATIONS, VIZ., LOYSVILLE, MOUNT ZION (FORMERLY ST. PETER'S), LUDOLPH'S (GERMANY, NEAR ELLIOTTSBURG), AND EMANUEL CHURCH NEAR ICKESBURG.

REV. G.M. SETTLEMOYER

OF WITTENBERG COLLEGE, OHIO, HAVING ACCEPTED A CALL FROM THE CHARGE, ENTERED ON HIS PASTORAL LABORS IN APRIL, 1859.

HE PREACHED REGULARLY ONCE EVERY TWO WEEKS TO EACH CONGREGATION. HAVING FOR A LENGTH OF TIME INSTRUCTED A CLASS OF CATECHUMENS AT LOYSVILLE, ON THE 10TH OF MARCH, 1860, HE CONFIRMED THE FOLLOWING PERSONS:

SAMUEL COMP
JOSIAH COMP

ST. PETER'S, NOW MOUNT ZION LUTHERAN CHURCH, IN SPRING TWP.

THIS CHURCH IS LOCATED ABOUT FIVE MILES EAST OF LOYSVILLE, IN SPRING TOWNSHIP, AND THE OLD UNION CHURCH WAS COMMONLY KNOWN AS ST. PETER'S, BUT THE NEW LUTHERAN CHURCH, ABOUT A MILE NORTH OF ST. PETER'S, RECEIVED THE DISTINCTIVE NAME MOUNT ZION.

THE EARLY HISTORY OF ST. PETER'S CHURCH IS INVOLVED IN MUCH OBSCURITY, AS THERE ARE NO AUTHENTIC DOCUMENTS AT HAND FROM WHICH INFORMATION MIGHT BE GATHERED. AS EARLY AS 1790. AND PROBABLY A FEW YEARS BEFORE THAT, THE CONGREGATION AT LOYSVILLE WAS ALREADY ORGANIZED, AND IT IS VERY LIKELY THAT THE OTHER CONGREGATIONS IN THE VALLEY WERE AT THAT TIME ONLY PREACHING STATIONS, WHILE ON OCCASIONS OF COMMUNION ALL THE MEMBERS WENT TO LOYSVILLE. WE ARE LED TO THIS CONCLUSION BY THE FACT, THAT AMONG THE NAMES OF CATECHUMENS AND COMMUNICANTS OF LOYSVILLE, IN 1798 AND 1804, WE DISCOVER THOSE OF PERSONS FROM THE VICINITY OF ST. PETER'S AND OF BLAIN.

THE OLD UNION ST. PETER'S CHURCH

REV. FREDERICK RUTHRAUFF

COMMENCED HIS PASTORAL LABORS HERE, IN CONNECTION WITH THE LOYSVILLE CHARGE, IN OCTOBER, 1850. HE AT ONCE INTRODUCED THE USE OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE IN DIVINE WORSHIP, A MEASURE MUCH NEEDED, AND FOR WANT OF WHICH THE CONGREGATION HAD BEEN SUFFERING FOR SOME TIME.

HAVING PREACHED A YEAR, REV. RUTHRAUFF COMMENCED TO INSTRUCT ANOTHER CLASS OF CATECHUMENS, AND, ON THE 5TH OF JUNE, 1852, THE FOLLOWING PERSONS WERE CONFIRMED:

MARY JANE COMP

A CALL WAS EXTENDED BY THE LOYSVILLE CHARGE TO THE

REV. PHILIP WILLARD,

WHICH HE ACCEPTED. AND COMMENCED HIS LABORS AS PASTOR ON THE 25TH OF MAY, 1856. HE LABORED AMONG THE PEOPLE OF ST. PETER'S CHURCH WITH GREAT DILISENCE AND CONSEQUENT SUCCESS. AT THE CLOSE OF THE YEAR '56 AND THE BEGINNING OF '57, IN CONNECTION WITH CATECHIZING, IT PLEASED THE LORD TO POUR OUT HIS SPIRIT ON THE CONGREGATION, AND WHILST MANY WERE REVIVED AND REFRESHED AS WITH THE DEW OF HEAVEN, A NUMBER WERE HOPEFULLY CONVERTED TO GOD, AND AFTER HAVING BEEN MORE FULLY INSTRUCTED. ON THE 7TH OF FEBRUARY, 1857, THE FOLLOWING PERSONS WERE ADMITTED TO FULL COMMUNION BY CONFIRMATION:

A NUMBER OF MEMBERS IN THE VICINITY OF ELLIOTTSBURG, THEN TYRONE, NOW SPRING TOWNSHIP, BELONGED TO THE CHURCH AT LOYSVILLE, AND SOME TO ST. PETER'S. TO EITHER OF THESE CHURCHES THE DISTANCE WAS CONSIDERABLE. REV. JOHN W. HEIM WAS PREVAILED UPON TO PREACH AND ULTIMATELY ON THE 20TH DAY OF MAY, 1841 DEVELOPED A CONSTITUTION TO ESTABLISH THE LUDOLPH CHURCH.

IN THE SPRING OF 1844, AMONG OTHERS, THE FOLLOWING PERSONS WERE ADMITTED TO FULL COMMUNION BY CONFIRMATION, AFTER THEY HAD BEEN FAITHFULLY INSTRUCTED BY FATHER HEIM IN THE CATECHISM:

CHAPTER II

BLOOMFIELD CHARGE

THE BLOOMFIELD CHARGE FORMED ORIGINALLY A PART OF THE LOYSVILLE PASTORATE. IN 1844, WHEN THE ENGLISH LUTHERAN CONGREGATION WAS ORGANIZED AT BLOOMFIELD, IT MAY BE SAID THE CHARGE WAS FIRST FORMED.

AFTER THE INDIAN WARS HAD CLOSED AND THE REVOLUTION HAD SUCCESSFULLY ENDED, THE SETTLERS IN THIS VALLEY LOCATED PERMANENTLY, AND, FROM ALL WE CAN LEARN, THE LUTHERAN PORTION OF THE POPULATION WAS THE FIRST TO ENJOY THE STATED PREACHING OF THE GOSPEL. OF THE ORIGINAL FOUNDERS OF THE LUTHERAN CONGREGATION AT BLOOMFIELD, WE CAN GIVE THE NAMES OF ONLY A FEW. THE COMP FAMILY AND SHOVER SETTLED IN THIS VICINITY IN ABOUT 1780; (MRIN X-1)

REV. JOHN WILLIAM HEIM

BECAME THE REGULAR PASTOR OF THIS CONGREGATION, WHICH, IN CONNECTION WITH THE OTHER LUTHERAN CONGREGATIONS IN SHERMAN'S VALLEY, HE SERVED TILL HIS DEATH ON THE 27TH OF DECEMBER, 1849. AS REV. HEIM RESIDED NEAR MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, ABOUT THIRTY MILES OFF, TILL THE SPRING OF 1828, HE CATECHIZED HERE ONCE EVERY THREE OR FOUR YEARS. DURING THE SUMMER OF 1825, REV. HEIM MET AND INSTRUCTED A CLASS HERE, AND IN THE FALL OF THE SAME YEAR BETWEEN THIRTY-FIVE AND FORTY WERE CONFIRMED, OF WHOM THE FOLLOWING PERSONS WERE THE MOST:

SAMUEL COMP (RIN X-3)

SOME OF THE ABOVE PERSONS ARE AT PRESENT AMONG OUR MOST USEFUL AGED MEMBERS OF THE CHURCH; BUT MANY OF THEM HAVE PASSED AWAY INTO THE ETERNAL WORLD.

PAGE 103

IN THE SPRING OF 1828, REV. HEIM MOVED TO LOYSVILLE, AND AFTER THAT USUALLY CATECHIZED HERE ONCE EVERY THREE YEARS. HAVING INSTRUCTED A CLASS, IN JUNE, 1830, HE CONFIRMED THE FOLLOWING PERSONS, AND A NUMBER OF OTHERS WHOSE NAMES CANNOT NOW BE REMEMBERED:

ANDREW COMP (RIN X-5)

IN MAY, 1833, WITH A NUMBER OF OTHERS, WHOSE NAMES CANNOT BE ASCERTAINED, THE FOLLOWING PERSONS WERE CONFIRMED HERE:

DANIEL COMP (RIN X-6)
MISS MAGDALENE COMP

THE CONGREGATION WAS EVIDENTLY IN A PROSPEROUS CONDITION AT THIS TIME. MANY CONFIRMED IN THIS CLASS ARE STILL MEMBERS OF THE CHURCH HERE AND ELSEWHERE, ADORNING THEIR CHRISTIAN

PROFESSION BY A GODLY LIFE AND EXTENSIVE USEFULNESS IN THE CHURCH.

IN AUGUST, 1835, THE FOLLOWING PERSONS, AND SOME OTHERS, WERE CONFIRMED:

ON THE 23d OF SEPTEMBER, 1842, THE WEST PENNSYLVANIA SYNOD OF THE LUTHERAN CHURCH CONVENED IN THIS HOUSE, AND REMAINED IN SESSION A NUMBER OF DAYS.

THOUGH FATHER HEIM HAD NOW ATTAINED THAT AGE WHEN MOST MEN SEEK REST IN RETIREMENT, HE NEVERTHELESS PROSECUTED HIS CALLING, AND WAS ACTIVELY AND ZEALOUSLY ENGAGED IN THE CAUSE OF HIS DIVINE MASTER. IN SEPTEMBER, 1845, HE CONFIRMED THE FOLLOWING CLASS OF CATECHUMENS:

MISS SOPHIA COMP (RINX-11)

THIS WAS THE LAST CLASS OF CATECHUMENS FATHER HEIM CONFIRMED HERE. FATHER HEIM CONTINUED TO PREACH HERE TO THE END OF HIS LIFE. HE DIED ON THE 27TH OF DECEMBER, 1849.

IN THE 1840'S DIVISION WITHIN THE CHURCH OCCURRED OVER THE USE OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE. THE ISSUE WAS ULTIMATELY RESOLVED AND A UNITED CONGREGATION WENT FORWARD IN HARMONY AND PEACE.

REV. DAVID H. FOCHT

OF CHAMBERSBURG, PA., HAVING RECEIVED AND ACCEPTED A CALL FORM THE CHARGE, ENTERED ON HIS MINISTERIAL LABORS ON THE 1ST OF JUNE, 1855. ON SUNDAY, MAY 27TH, PREVIOUS TO THE COMMENCEMENT OF HIS PASTORAL YEAR, HE PREACHED HIS INTRODUCTORY SERMON AT BLOOMFIELD. THIS CONGREGATION REQUIRES PREACHING IN THE GERMAN LANGUAGE NO MORE. WHAT A CHANGE HATH TIME WROUGHT! ONLY ELEVEN YEARS AGO ALL THE PREACHING IN THIS CHURCH WAS IN THAT LANGUAGE.

SOON AFTER THE PRESENT PASTOR HAD TAKEN CHARGE OF THE PASTORATE, HE COMMENCED AT BLOOMFIELD TO INSTRUCT A CLASS OF CATECHUMENS IN THE DOCTRINES OF OUR HOLY RELIGION. HAVING BEEN PRAYERFULLY INSTRUCTED, AND GIVING EVIDENCE OF A SINCERE DESIRE TO GLORIFY GOD. ON THE 10TH OF NOVEMBER, 1855, THE FOLLOWING PERSONS WERE CONFIRMED:

ST. ANDREW'S (SHUMAN'S) CHURCH IN SAVILLE TOWNSHIP

AT THE CLOSE OF THE LAST CENTURY AND THE BEGINNING OF THE PRESENT, A LARGE NUMBER OF LUTHERANS SETTLED AT AND EAST OF WHERE ICKESBURG WAS AFTERWARDS LOCATED, IN JUNIATA, NOW SAVILLE, TOWNSHIP. THEY HAD HOWEVER NO CHURCH NEARER THAN LOYSVILLE OR BLOOMFIELD, TO EITHER OF WHICH PLACES THEY HAD TO GO A DISTANCE FROM EIGHT TO TWELVE MILES. SOME TIME ABOUT 1812 ABOUT TWO MILES EAST OF ICKESBURG, AT THE HOUSE OF MR. ANDREW SHUMAN, THE REV. FREDERICK OBERHAUSER PREACHED OCCASIONALLY TO SCATTERED MEMBERS.

WHEN IN 1815, THE REV. JOHN WILLIAM HEIM COMMENCED TO PREACH AT LOYSVILLE, IN PASSING FROM JUNIATA TO PERRY COUNTY, HE PREACHED OCCASIONALLY IN PRIVATE DWELLINGS AT ICKESBURG AND THE SURROUNDING NEIGHBORHOOD. STILL, IF THE MEMBERS

WISHED TO ATTEND PREACHING REGULARLY, THEY HAD TO GO TO LOYSVILLE OR BLOOMFIELD.

ON THE 16TH DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1829 A GROUP OF SUBSCRIBERS BOUND THEMSELVES TO PAY A DESIGNATED SUM FOR THE PURPOSE OF ERECTING A GERMAN CHURCH IN SAVILLE TOWNSHIP, PERRY COUNTY, NEAR ANDREW SHUMAN'S LOWER MILL NEAR ICKESBURG.

IN ABOUT 1830 REV. HEIM WROTE THE CONSTITUTION IN THE GERMAN LANGUAGE. THIS INSTRUMENT OF WRITING IS SUBSTANTIALLY THE SAME AS THE CONSTITUTION ADOPTED AT LOYSVILLE IN 1827.

IN 1840, A LARGE CLASS OF CATECHUMENS WAS CONFIRMED. THE FOLLOWING PERSONS ARE A FEW OF THIS CLASS:

MRS. MARGARET COMP
MISS SUSAN COMP

WHILST PASTOR OF THIS CONGREGATION, FATHER HEIM PREACHED REGULARLY ONCE IN FOUR WEEKS IN THE GERMAN LANGUAGE. THE WANT OF PREACHING IN THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE BEGAN TO BE DEEPLY FELT. HENCE THE MEMBERS PROPOSED TO REV. HEIM THAT THEY WOULD SUPPORT HIM AS THEY HAD ALWAYS DONE, AND THAT HE SHOULD CONTINUE TO PREACH IN GERMAN, BUT THAT HE SHOULD ALLOW THEM TO ASSOCIATE WITH HIM A MINISTER WHO COULD PREACH IN THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE. TO THIS REASONABLE PROPOSITION HE OBJECTED, AND AFTER HOLDING COMMUNION IN MAY, 1849, HE RESIGNED; AND ON THE 27TH OF DECEMBER FOLLOWING, HE DEPARTED THIS LIFE IN PEACE. IN JUNE OF THE SAME YEAR, HE WAS AT THIS PLACE SUCCEEDED AS PASTOR BY THE

REV. JACOB MARTIN

WHO WAS THEN PASTOR OF THE BLOOMFIELD CHARGE. REV. MARTIN PREACHED FOR THIS CONGREGATION ONCE EVERY THREE WEEKS, ALTERNATELY IN THE GERMAN AND ENGLISH LANGUAGES. A CHURCH-RECORD WAS NOW SECURED, AND HEREAFTER BAPTISMS, CONFIRMATIONS, &c., WERE REGULARLY RECORDED.

AFTER BEING DULY INSTRUCTED AND FOUND PROPERLY QUALIFIED, ON SATURDAY, THE 8TH OF JUNE, 1850, THE FOLLOWING PERSONS WERE CONFIRMED:

THE BLAIN CHARGE

THE TERRITORY EMBRACED IN THE BLAIN CHARGE WAS UNTIL LATELY CONNECTED WITH THE LOYSVILLE PASTORATE, AS THE LOYSVILLE CHARGE WAS TOO LARGE FOR ONE MINISTER TO SERVE, REV. R. WILLARD REQUESTED THAT PROVISION SHOULD BE MADE FOR THE EMPLOYMENT OF AN ASSISTANT. THE LOYSVILLE CHARGE OBJECTED AND IT WAS RESOLVED ON THE 26TH OF OCTOBER 1858 BY THE ZION AND ST. PAUL'S CONGREGATIONS TO DIVIDE THE AREA INTO TWO SEPARATE CHARGES.

ZION CONGREGATION AT BLAIN IN JACKSON TOWNSHIP

DURING THE LAST QUARTER OF THE LAST CENTURY, AND THE BEGINNING OF THE PRESENT, A LARGE NUMBER OF FAMILIES BELONGING TO THE LUTHERAN CHURCH SETTLED THE VERY FERTILE AND BEAUTIFUL SCOPE OF LAND WEST OF LOYSVILLE. BLAIN, A VILLAGE IN JACKSON (FORMERLY TOBOYNE) TOWNSHIP, ABOUT TEN MILES WEST OF LOYSVILLE, IS LOCATED AT ABOUT THE CENTRE OF THIS RICH, CHARMING, AND DENSELY POPULATED PART OF SHERMAN'S VALLEY.

LAND WAS PURCHASED FOR A CHURCH SITE THE 10TH DAY OF JANUARY, 1801 BUT PREACHING OCCURRED ONLY INTERMITTENTLY. SOME TIME IN 1815, THE MEMBERS SECURED THE PASTORAL SERVICES OF THE REV. JOHN WILLIAM HEIM WHO ORGANIZED THE CONGREGATION. THE COMMENCEMENT OF BUILDING CONSTRUCTION WAS MADE ON THE 5TH OF MAY, IN THE YEAR 1816.

ON THE 25TH OF MAY, 1856, THE REV. PHILIP WILLARD ACCEPTED A CALL TO DISCHARGE HIS PASTORAL LABORS HERE.

AS THEY HAD A CONSIDERABLE DISTANCE TO THE NEAREST CHURCH, THEY CONCLUDED, IN 1855, TO ORGANIZE THEMSELVES INTO A CONGREGATION AND ERECT A CHURCH IN THEIR MIDST. THE MEMBERS UNITED HEARTILY IN THIS GOOD WORK. THE CONGREGATION WAS REGULARLY ORGANIZED EARLY IN THE SPRING OF 1855.

MOUNT ZION CHURCH IN FISHING CREEK VALLEY, RYE TOWNSHIP

SOME OF THE EARLIEST SETTLERS IN FISHING CREEK VALLEY WERE LUTHERANS, AND MANY OF THEIR DESCENDANTS STILL FORM A LARGE PORTION OF THE POPULATION OF RYE TOWNSHIP. AS EARLY AS 1763, JOHN RANKIN LOCATED LAND "AT CANDENNAN'S GAP IN KITTATINY HILL"; ISRAEL JACOBS SETTLED ON FISHING CREEK IN 1766, AND JOHN JACOBS IN 1768; ADAM REIGART IN 1773, AND SAMUEL STARR, " ON THE WATERS OF FISHING CREEK," IN 1774, AND GEORGE ALBRIGHT (GERMAN, ALBRECHT) LOCATED LAND IN 1786. THESE PIONEER SETTLERS WERE SOON JOINED BY OTHERS FROM THE EASTERN COUNTIES AND CUMBERLAND VALLEY, AMONG WHOM WERE THE REIBERS (GERMAN, RAUBERS) IN 1790, THE FOULKS (VOLKS) IN 1795, THE ENSMINGERS IN 1797, AND THEN THE SLOOPS, FINICLES, KIMMELS, HINKELS, BILLOWS (GERMAN, BILLOCH), AND A NUMBER OF OTHERS. THESE ALL SETTLED ON FISHING CREEK, ALONG SHERMAN'S CREEK AND IN PISGAH VALLEY. BEFORE THEY HAD A CHURCH IN THEIR MIDST, THESE MEMBERS ATTENDED PREACHING AT CARLISLE, A DISTANCE FROM TEN TO FIFTEEN MILES, BY A RUGGED PATH OVER THE MOUNTAINS.

MONTGOMERY'S FERRY, Dec. 10.—Young Mr. Miller and Miss Myrtle Dorman of New Buffalo, who were out driving on Thursday evening had an accident near Girtys Notch, at the Philip Frank orchard.

Their steed, which was a colt, became frightened and after backing around considerably made a plunge forward and run down the steep bank into the old canal.

The bank at that point is very steep and supposed to be about 25 feet high.

How Mr. Miller and Miss Dorman escaped injury is a miracle, which they did, however, as the buggy was upset and the top damaged.

The horse also escaped injury.

One Less At Home

The charmed circle, a dear face,
Missed day by day from her usual place,
But cleansed, saved, perfected by grace,
One more in heaven.

Oh, mother, thy gentle voice is hushed,
Thy warm, true heart is still,
And on thy pale and ... face
...

Your hand is lying upon thy breast,
We have kissed thy lovely brow,
And in our aching hearts we know
We have no mother now.

Loving friends, weep not for me,
How happy, happy I shall be
When pillowed on my Savior's breast!
Oh, the hope, the hope is sweet
That we soon in heaven may meet,

LOVING DAUGHTER CHARLOTTE.

One Less At Home

The charmed circle, a dear face
Missed day by day from her usual place.
But cleansed, saved, perfected by grace,
One more in heaven.

Oh, mother, thy gentle voice is hushed,
Thy warm, true heart is still,
And on thy pale and ... face,
Is resting ...

Your hand is lying upon thy breast,
We have kissed thy lovely brow,
And in our aching hearts we know
We have no mother now.

Loving friends, weep not for me,
How happy, happy I shall be
When pillowed on my Savior's breast!
Oh, the hope, the hope is sweet
That we soon in heaven may meet,
There we all shall happy be.
Rest from pain and sorrow free!

One more in a happy band,
One more home is desolate now,
One more harp in an angel's hand,
One more crown on an angel's brow,

Yes, with streaming tears we prayed,
"Lord, we love her, let her stay."
In love she lived, in peace she died,
Her life was asked, but God denied.

Proceedings of Landisburg District Institute.

The annual session of the Landisburg District Institute convened in the school house at Landisburg, Friday evening, Dec. 27, 1889. An organization was effected by the election of Wm. A. Lightner as vice president, and Wm. H. Kell and Geo. W. Stewart as secretaries. The Glee Club then sang a piece of music, "Bright Water."

W. H. Kell, of Spring township, next read a carefully prepared paper. Subject, "The Effects of Experience in Teaching." Further discussed by Messrs. Preisler and Lightner. John S. Arnold, of Millerstown, was then introduced to the Institute by Supt. Aumiller and added a number of thoughts to those presented by the above mentioned gentlemen. Music, "What Are We Doing?"

Cloyd M. Bailor discussed the subject of "Mental Arithmetic—To What Extent Should Mental Arithmetic Be Taught in the Common School?" He thought it should be taught in connection with written arithmetic, and to such an extent as will be practical in every day life. Mr. Rice endorsed the remarks of Mr. Bailor. Mr. Preisler thinks if it is taught, it should be taught to the same extent as written arithmetic. Mr. Lightner asked why this branch was discarded. Mr. Arnold recommended it as a valuable aid in cultivating attention. It should be taught to some extent as written arithmetic. The question was further discussed by Messrs. Kell and Preisler. Supt. Aumiller advised the teachers to teach all the mental exercises contained in such as Brook's Union, and they should aim to cultivate proper expression in the solutions of the problems, otherwise its great value is lost. Music, "Evening Shadows."

A paper upon the subject of "Penmanship" was read by O B. Kern, of Tyrone township. In this paper Mr. Kern laid special stress upon shading, position and correction of errors. Music, "Harvest Home."

Adjourned to meet at 10 o'clock, Saturday morning.

SATURDAY.

Morning Session.—Institute was called to order by the vice president. The Glee Club then sang "Praise the Lord."

A communication from L. Myrtle Smith, a teacher of Carroll township, giving her reasons for not being able to attend the Institute and asking to be excused, was read by the Secretary. It was moved and seconded that the communication be received and placed on file.

G W Stewart, of Tyrone township, then read a paper entitled, "The Teacher's Responsibility." The subject was further discussed by Mr. Rice and Mr. Reuben Gibson, of Rye township. Dr. Milliken continued the discussion and touched principally upon the director's responsibility. He thinks the director should be paid for his services. Mr. Samuel Ebert, a former director of Tyrone township, thinks they are amply remunerated for their services. Mr. Abram Bower, of Spring township, disagreed with Mr. Ebert upon this subject. Music, "There's a Land o'er the Ocean."

Miss Jean S. Henderson, of Carroll township, next read an essay on "Education." This composition exhibited good taste and careful preparation. Music, "Cold Water."

A paper on "Civil Government" was next read by J. W. Morrow. The gentleman dwelt upon the necessity of government, and showed how families develop into communities, communites into states, and these again into nations. Government naturally develops in the same order. The most ignorant nations have the most despotic government, hence the benefits of education. Supt. Aumiller discussed the subject with reference to the importance of teaching the duties of the different officers of our government, their responsibilities, and manner of their election to the pupils in our common schools. Voters should exercise the right of suffrage intelligently. Additional remarks were made by Mr. Bower. Music, "Speak Gently to the Erring."

Afternoon Session.—Institute was opened with music by the Glee Club.

The subject of "School Ethics" was presented by G. L. Comp, of Tyrone township. He defined the duties of the teacher; the duties of the scholars to one another, to the schoolrooms and furniture, and to the school in general. The speaker placed especial stress on teaching morals and manners. Above all teach them their duty to God. Music, "Break the News Gently to Mother."

Walker M. Kistler, of Spring township, delivered a paper stating his method of teaching U. S. History. In this paper he recommended teaching the elements orally. Tell the pupils interesting stories relating to the early history of our country and relate the biography of some of our great men. Do not require the pupils to commit all dates. Mr. Comp heartily endorsed this paper, and by request gave his methods of teaching advanced history. Mr. Morrow recommended Goodrich's Primary History, and would not rehearse historical stories to the pupils, but allow them to read the narratives for themselves. Mr. Preisler advocates the teaching of facts and not the words of the text. Mr. Arnold gave his methods. He uses the topical method, giving pleasing anecdotes and biographies in connection. He does not require pupils to memorize the words of the text book. Music, "Juanita."

The all important subject of "The Teacher's Relation to Parents," was introduced by Director Bower in a carefully prepared and exhaustive paper. The child's training is neglected too much before arriving at school age, consequently a revolutionizing process is necessary to adapt him to the regulations of the schoolroom. There should be a mutual co-operation between the teacher and the parent. He concluded his remarks by reading a pertinent selection entitled "How Prince Albert Did It."—Music, "Just Beyond the River."

Mr. Ebert opened a discussion on the following question, "Does the Teacher Need a Moral Training?" The gentleman replied in the affirmative. The teacher is not qualified unless he receives a special preparation himself. He needs this just as much as the members of the learned professions. The superintendent defined the word normal as meaning regular training. Teachers do receive this training at all our normal schools. He does not however fault the system. Every teacher should aim to be progressive and should if possible attend some school. The discussion was continued by Messrs Bower, Preisler, Henderson and Lightner. Music, "We Shall Meet Them By and By."

The superintendent then complimented the Institute very highly upon its work in general.

Evening Session.—Supt. Aumiller having been compelled to leave at the close of the afternoon session, the evening session was opened by the vice president. Music, "Harvest Home."

A paper on "Tact in Teaching" was read by Chas S. Henderson, of Carroll township. The speaker defined the term tact in a logical manner, and then proceeded to show its importance in teaching. The object was ably handled and reflected credit on the author. Music, "Sig Gentle Gales."

Daniel Rice, of Spring township, then favored the Institute with a humorous selection. F. P. Morrison, of Tyrone township, discussed the subject, "How Do You Teach Geography?" in a comprehensive paper. The gentleman prefers the synthetic process for young pupils, using natural objects as far as possible. The Glee Club then sang "What Are We Doing?" after which the discussion was resumed by Messrs. Morrow and Gibson.

"How Do You Teach Physiology and Hygiene?" The discussion upon this subject was opened by Chas. T. Rice, of Landisburg. The want of proper apparatus is sadly felt in teaching the elements of this science.

The audience was then waited upon by collectors for the purpose of raising money to defray the expenses of the Institute. Music, "The Master Stood in the Garden."

Alfred Gleim, of Landisburg, an old veteran ex-teacher, then read a humorous article, "Crossing the Carry." Music, "The Old, Old Clock."

Reuben Gibson, of Rye township, enumerated quite a number of works which he recommended as proper literature to be placed in the pupil's possession. This gentleman thinks pupils can be taught to discern the good in all literary productions, and reject the injurious. Mr. Kell took issue with him in this statement and argued that they cannot read pernicious literature without becoming contaminated with evil. Music, "I'm Wandering in Distant Lands."

Mr. Kell then entertained the audience with a comic declamation. Daniel Rice followed with a humorous selection—"Jamie Butler and The Owl."

On motion of F. P. Morrison, the Institute tendered a vote of thanks to the Glee Club for the excellent music discoursed during the sessions of Institute, and also to the congregation of the Reformed church for the use of their organ.

The total number of teachers present during the various sessions was eighteen belonging to the district, and five visiting teachers.

Visiting Teachers.—J. S. Arnold, of Millerstown; Miss Mary E. Treasler, of Centre township; and Messrs. Gibson, of Rye; Bower and Shumaker, of Saville.

Directors Present.—Capt. W. H. Sheibley, Dr. J. P. Sheibley and H. D. Fetter, of Landisburg; Mr. Chas. Carl, of Tyrone; and Messrs. Bower and Sheibley, of Spring. Total six.

Ex-directors, Dr. D. B. Milliken, of Landisburg, and Samuel Ebert, of Tyrone, deserve much credit for the zeal they manifest in the cause of education.

$250,000 RUG THEFT CHARGED

Turk Finds Two of Collection, One 500 Years Old, and Causes Arrest.

Hadji Hassonoff, a Turk, who lives at 261 Eagle Avenue, the Bronx, has long been hunting for $250,000 worth of rugs, which he says he left several months ago in storage at the establishment of Sajun & Tehelram of 35 and 37 East Twentieth Street. Yesterday afternoon when he saw two beautiful rugs set out for sale in an office at 10 East Seventeenth Street he almost shouted for joy, and he lost no time in claiming them as his own.

"This one," he said at the police station "is 500 years old. It is made by hand. It is 36½ feet long and 7 feet wide, and it is worth more than $10,000. This smaller one is worth over $8,000. Where my other rugs are I know not. I left them all with this Sajun & Tehelram, and now, I hear, they are bust; went out last Saturday. Where are my other rugs, you?"

He grasped the shoulder of Frederick Comp, who was arrested by Policeman Tyndale of the mounted squad at 10 East Seventeenth Street. But Comp could not tell.

Comp said that he was forty years old, that his home was Rutherford, N. J., and that he had been bookkeeper for the firm of Sajun & Telehram. He said he hadn't seen his employers since Monday, and that he had been commissioned to sell the rugs. He was arraigned in the Jefferson Market Court, charged with receiving stolen property and the case was adjourned until to-day. Comp failing to give $5,000 bond was locked up.

Hadji Hassonoff said that he brought $250,000 worth of rugs to this country several months ago, leaving them with Sajun & Telehram. He went to get them Monday, but found the establishment closed.

He had seen Comp going into the office of Charles H. Climper, a broker, at 10 East Seventeenth Street. He recognized his precious rugs, he said, and at once had Comp arrested.

J. G. PHELPS STOKES TO WED YOUNG JEWESS

Engagement of Member of Old New York Family Announced.

BOTH WORKED ON EAST SIDE

Flattering Article by Miss Pastor, as Reporter, May Have Brought About the Engagement.

The engagement of J. G. Phelps Stokes, member of an old New York family, to Miss Rose Harriet Pastor, a young Jewess, who until two weeks ago was a special writer on The Jewish Daily News, and prior to that worked in a Cleveland cigar factory, was announced yesterday. The date for the wedding has not been definitely settled, but the event will take place some time in July.

On July 13, 1892, Miss Pastor was assigned by the city editor of The Jewish Daily News to interview Mr. Stokes, who was then as now a resident worker of the University Settlement in Rivington Street. There had been rumors that, owing to a disagreement in the Governing Board of the settlement, Mr. Stokes was to retire and take up work in a new settlement, to be founded by Robert Hunter, who had been head worker of the Rivington Street Neighborhood House, and who thus became acquainted with Miss Caroline Phelps Stokes, a sister of J. G. Phelps Stokes, whom he married.

Miss Pastor obtained a denial of the rumors. When she went back to the office she write a two-column "story," winding up with an estimate of Mr. Stokes that prompted the city editor to say:

"Miss Pastor, if I thought as much of Mr. Stokes as you seem to do, I would take care not to let anybody know it."

Miss Pastor said regretfully yesterday that many of her impressions of Mr. Stokes had been "cut out." This much was left, however:

"Mr. Stokes is a deep, strong thinker. His youthful face 'takes' by virtue of its fresh, earnest, and kind expression. One glance at his face and you feel that Mr.

STATEN ISLAND BOAT SCARE

The Westfield Hit St. George Bulkhead —Tore Hole in Side.

About 125 passengers on the Staten Island Rapid Transit ferryboat Westfield were thrown into a panic early this morning, when the boat struck a bulkhead at St. George. The passengers thought the boat was about to sink and during the excitement women screamed, and it was with much difficulty some of the passengers were restrained from jumping overboard.

The Westfield left Manhattan at 11:15 o'clock last night, and reached the St George pier shortly before 12:30. There was a strong wind blowing, and in making the slip at St. George the boat smashed against the bulkhead, tearing a big hole in her side.

The deckhands finally managed to quiet the frightened passengers, and the boat was backed off from the bulkhead and the slip made without further trouble.

FOREIGN CANAL ENGINEERS.

England, France, and Germany Asked to Send Panama Advisers.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Secretary Taft has asked Great Britain, France, and Germany, through their Ambassadors here, to nominate each a distinguished engineer to become a member of the advisory Board of Engineers which will act in co-operation with the new Panama Canal Commission. It is hoped that by this means there may be secured to the organization of the Canal Commission the aid of some of the most distinguished engineers of the world.

The interest which Europe has in the success of the Panama Canal also encourages the idea, and it is believed that men will be named who will have had experience in the greatest engineering works of modern times. The other six members of the advisory board will be Americans.

The whole board will be expected to go to the Isthmus and make a study of the problems involved in building the canal. The United States will pay the foreign members of the board a liberal salary as well as the American members also. The entire board will be selected within the next few days, and among them will be Messrs. Burr and Parsons, members of the old Canal Commission. The board will increase wages without altering the hours of labor, and the offer may possibly be accepted.

The strikers' committee has issued placards urging the strikers to maintain peace. Placards have been posted in many places warning peaceful citizens to remain indoors after sunset. A number of placards have also been posted ing the strikers to commit violence. These his interest. This trio floated the property to a company of English investors, incorporated with $600,000 of share capital, and giving a mortgage of $200,000 on the property. John Peter Grant of London acted as purchasing agent.

SYBIL SANDERSON'S TRIUMPH.

PARIS, May 15.—Massenet's new opera, "Esclarmonde," was produced at the Opéra Comique this evening. Miss Sybil Sanderson, an American, took the leading rôle, and achieved a great success. President Carnot, the composers, Reyer, Delibes, and Godard, and numerous stars, including Nilsson, Melba, and Duvivier, were among the audience. Miss Sanderson's voice is not of great volume, but it is of the utmost purity and sweetness. She astonished the audience with the ease with which she took difficult passages, and critics predict a great future for her.

President Carnot complimented Massenet at the close of the performance.

FATHER EGAN'S TESTIMONY.

LONDON, May 15.—Father Egan testified before the Parnell Commission to-day. He said that the leading men of Loughrea belonged to the branch of the League in that district. No serious crime had been committed from the time of the formation of the Loughrea branch until it was suppressed, except the murder of Policeman Lynton. That crime had been condemned at a meeting of the League, and the witness had denounced it from the altar of his church.

APIA'S COUNCIL.

BERLIN, May 15.—The sub-committee of the Samoan conference has decided that the municipal Council of Apia shall comprise six members, Germany, England, and the United States each to appoint one. The other three shall be elected by the residents of Apia. This decision displeases the British Commissioners, who call it the Phelps compromise. Mr. Phelps, although not a member of the sub-committee, was asked to attend its last meeting.

THE SHAH ON HIS TRAVELS.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 15.—The Shah of Persia, who is now journeying from Teheran to St. Petersburg, is meeting with a grand reception in Russia. At Erwan the streets through which he passed were lined with troops, and at several points there were triumphal arches bearing the inscription, "To the Shah's Sacred Person." The entire town was brilliantly illuminated upon the evening of the day on which the Shah arrived.

CURRENT FOREIGN TOPICS.

PARIS, May 15.—Mr. Whitelaw Reid, the new American Minister, was received by M. Spuller, Minister of Foreign Affairs, to-day. President Carnot will receive Mr. Reid at the end of the week.

Le Paris says that the Government has decided to introduce in Parliament a bill to aid the Panama Canal Company.

The Eiffel Tower was opened to-day, and was thronged with visitors.

The French Board of Trade returns for the month of April show a decrease of 9,722,000f.

The English preference shareholders get 7½ per cent. as a fixed charge on their investments, the remainder of the net income going to all shareholders. The Englishmen take a roseate view of the possibilities of this net income, estimating it at something in excess of forty-four thousand dollars, or enough to pay a dividend of 15 per cent. on the capital stock. The $50,000 cash remaining after purchasing the breweries will be working capital.

HOW A CLEVER SWINDLER TURNED BAD WHISKY INTO GOOD BOURBON.

CHICAGO, May 15.—A scheme rivaling in some respects the electric sugar refining swindle was exposed here to-day. The perpetrator is a smooth-mannered young fellow named John Archibald Comp, whose papers indicate that he has been operating not only in Chicago but also at Kansas City, St. Louis, and Cincinnati. Comp is now missing, and it is said that a good many thousand dollars belonging to various distillers and liquor dealers have disappeared with him.

Comp stopped at the Metropolitan Hotel and was visited by scores of dupes. He pretended to possess a compound which would change poor whisky into the finest of highwines. A gallon sample of the vilest "forty-rod" after being medicated would be placed in a refrigerator and in ten minutes could be taken out and transformed into the finest bourbon. If objection was made to the refrigerator Comp would accompany the doubter to any place desired, and then retiring to a private room, accomplish the same feat without the refrigerator.

It turns out, however, that the refrigerator was really, as suspected, a clever device by which a bottle containing good whisky was substituted for the bad. The trick, when performed elsewhere than at the refrigerator, was done by means of a tin breastplate or armor worn under Comp's clothing. This armor was double, and was in reality a reservoir which, by means of a concealed tube, could be emptied or filled at will.

Comp was inveigled into taking a detective into partnership with him, but when an arrest was contemplated, smelt a mouse and fled, leaving behind the refrigerator. He carried off the armor.

GERMANY'S IDLE MINERS

MUCH DISTRESS AMONG THE STRIKERS.

ABOUT 160,000 PERSONS INVOLVED IN THE STRIKE—THE COUNTRY FEELING THE WANT OF COAL.

BERLIN, May 15.—Distress is beginning to be felt in the coal districts in consequence of the strike of the miners. A committee has appealed for funds, and a number of Westphalia newspapers have opened subscription lists. The number of strikers and their dependents is estimated at 160,000. Hundreds of miners have resumed work under the protection of troops and many other strikers are wavering. The employers in the Witten district have offered to increase wages without altering the hours of labor, and the offer may possibly be accepted.

The strikers' committee has issued placards urging the strikers to maintain peace. Placards have been posted in many places warning peaceful citizens to remain indoors after sunset. A number of placards have also been posted urging the strikers to commit violence. These latter are attributed by some to the masters, by others to the Socialists, and by still others to women opposed to the strike.

Some Westphalia strikers held an interview to-day with Deputies Hammacher, Baumbach, and Schmidt. This is thought to indicate an early settlement of the strike.

The metal works of Luxemburg are discharging their workmen on account of the scarcity of coal.

The builders of Sprottau, the carpenters of Bunzlau, Konigsberg, Wurzberg, and Lubeck, and the brewers of Dortmund are out on strike. The tailors of Bremerhaven have obtained an increase of wages and a reduction of the hours of labor. The agitation is extending. In Berlin the employes of the General Omnibus Company and several trades are disaffected.

LONDON, May 15.—There were 120 cargoes of coal ordered in England to-day for Germany.

DETROIT BREWERIES SOLD.

FOUR BIG ESTABLISHMENTS BOUGHT BY AN ENGLISH SYNDICATE.

DETROIT, May 15.—The titles to the extensive brewing plants of A. Goebel & Co., the Bavarian Brewing Company, the Endriss Brewery, and the brewery and bottling works of Jacob Mann passed yesterday into the hands of City Controller Moran, County Treasurer Phelps, Col. August Goebel, and Joseph B. Moore, cashier of the Peninsular Savings Bank, and the company assumed the management of the newly-acquired properties to-day. The gentlemen named are trustees, and simply own stock enough to enable them to act. The real purchasers are H. Seton-Karr of Hill's Union Brewery, London; T. M. Lambert of London and Nottingham, and E. Rawlins, a Director of the same brewery in which Mr. Seton-Karr has his interest. This trio floated the property to a company of English investors, incorporated with $600,000 of share capital, and giving a mortgage of $200,000 on the property. John Peter Grant of London acted as purchasing agent.

Of the $800,000 which is represented by the capital stock of the English company and the mortgage, there is represented by schedules of actual property the sum of $274,000, and this stands on the Assessors' books here rated at $141,050. The remainder of the sum paid the Detroit brewers represents the estimated value of the good-will. The deal sums up thus: The brewers get $100,000 in 6 per cent. mortgage bonds, running twenty years, and $325,000 in cash for their properties. Of this $325,000, $100,000 is supplied from the sale of bonds here, and $225,000 comes out of the company's capital stock. The rest of the money subscribed for stock so far, $550,000, is disposed of, except $50,000 surplus, to the New-York and English promoters. John P. Grant gets about $10,000 for his work and expenses. Sewall & Wolff of New-York, who were Grant's backers, will make about $75,000 net and the English Directors, headed by Seton-Karr, make about $150,000 net, after the expenses of advertising, investigating, floating, and commissions come out.

The English preference shareholders get 7½ per cent. as a fixed charge on their investments, the remainder of the net income going to all shareholders. The Englishmen take a roseate view of the possibilities of this net income, estimating it at something in excess of forty-four thousand dollars, or enough to pay a dividend of 15 per cent. on the capital stock. DIES BY HIS OWN HAND

GEN. ADNA ANDERSON ENDS A VERY BUSY LIFE.

HIS SUICIDE SAID TO HAVE BEEN CAUSED BY INSANITY—HIS RECORD IN THE RAILROAD WORLD.

PHILADELPHIA, May 15.—Gen. Adna Anderson, the well-known railroad engineer, committed suicide last night in his room in the Lafayette Hotel in this city.

Gen. Anderson arrived at the Lafayette on Sunday and registered simply, "A. Anderson, New-York."

Gen. Anderson had no baggage with the exception of a gripsack. Very little was seen of him afterward, and the hotel attachés who caught glimpses of him as he went to and from his meals saw that he was laboring under a great deal of excitement.

Shortly before 12 o'clock on Tuesday night a colored bell boy heard a pistol shot and notified Night Watchman Rice. Following the direction from which the noise came, the two ascended the stairs to the fourth floor and burst open the door of a toilet room. On the floor lay the body of a fashionably-dressed, distinguished-looking man, beside which was a bulldog revolver.

On a page of a memorandum book left by the suicide was written: "I feel a great buzzing in my ears and a very peculiar feeling in my head. Can this be brain fever?"

Proprietor Maltby was called, and he recognized the body as that of Mr. Anderson. A search of his effects revealed the memorandum referred to. Every effort possible was made to suppress the facts of the suicide. Neither the police nor the Coroner were notified. Dr. Wilson of 1,437 Walnut-street was called in, and after he pronounced the man dead Mr. Maltby sent for Undertaker Earley, who removed the remains to his establishment.

Lieut. Urilton and the Coroner are indignant at not being notified of the tragedy. The undertaker called on the Coroner and stated that he removed the body because the present Coroner's predecessor permitted him to remove bodies of suicides and other cases, providing he did not take them out of the city limits. The hotel people say that they understood that the undertaker would attend to notifying the authorities.

In response to Mr. Maltby's telegram notifying the family of the occurrence, the young son of the suicide arrived here. Gen. Merrill also came on, and the two visited the undertaker. A very affecting scene took place, after which they called on the Coroner and said that they had made all arrangements for the removal of the body.

Gen. Anderson was in moderate circumstances.

Several days before the centennial celebration in New York the General received a note from his intimate friend, Gen. Merrill, Chairman of the National Pension Committee of the Grand Army, to the effect that he intended calling on a business errand, but did not like to visit New-York while the celebration was going on, owing to the crowded condition of the city. Gen. Anderson wrote saying that he had business in this city in a fortnight, when he would meet his friend at the Lafayette Hotel. Gen. Merrill said he would be on hand at the appointed time, which was to-day.

Relatives arrived in this city to-day and completed arrangements for the removal of the body of Gen. Anderson. After the inquest to-morrow it will be sent to Washington and interred at Georgetown.

Up to the time of his death Gen. Anderson was the President of the United States Auxiliary Fire Alarm Company, with headquarters in New-York, and to attend properly to his duties he stopped at the Everett House in that city, returning to his Sing Sing dwelling once a week. It was on account of making the Everett House his home that the General carried a key ring with his own name and that of the hotel stamped on it.

A son of Gen. Anderson told the Coroner that he believed his father to have been insane at the time of the shooting, and could not assign any other cause for the rash act. About a year ago, while engaged in mining, the General contracted what was known as mountain fever. This troubled him for some time and finally developed into brain trouble.

Gen. Adna Anderson, who was well known in this city, committed suicide by shooting Tuesday night in his room at the Lafayette Hotel in Philadelphia. Gen. Anderson's home proper was at Sing Sing, where, with his wife and several grown-up children, he occupied a handsome country residence. The family had, for fifteen years past, stopped at the Everett House in Union-square when visiting this city, which happened frequently. He was rather above the medium height and of light build, and had grayish hair and beard. His friends describe him as quiet and gentlemanly in his demeanor and reticent almost to the point of taciturnity.

The report that he had been on a spree surprised his friends, who had known him to be a steady drinker, but had never before heard of his being visibly affected by his indulgence. None of them had ever heard of his being in difficulties or of his being engaged in speculations of any kind, though they acknowledged that such might have been the case with...

Perry resident piecing schools' puz

Red Hill (above) and Greenbriar are among the schools Margie Becker has researched.

By Montie Tak

Margie Becker never thought she'd write a book.

But next year, she hopes to publish "A Scrapbook of Perry County Schoolhouses," a pictorial history of hundreds of old and new schools.

She wants the book's appearance to coincide with the 150th anniversary of the state's free school law, enacted in 1934.

She found there was no shortage of material — and she has a voluminous manuscript to prove it.

Her project began in 1976 when, serving on the arts and crafts committee at the county show in Susquenita, she volunteered to make a map of all the schools in Perry. Two years later, she decided to complete her copy by including the dates the schools were used.

Mrs. Becker found there were no exact records. She says there were about 50 schools before there were free schools.

Even after the free school law was passed, it took a few years before school districts adopted it and put it into effect. School directors had to be elected, teachers hired, taxes levied and buildings built.

All the first schools were started by religious congregations, who also used the buildings for religious purposes, Mrs. Becker notes.

It took her six months just to get the schools' names. She says she has talked to hundreds of people, learning much about the county and church history along the way.

"You don't want to miss something good, but in the beginning you just get a mish-mash of facts," she says.

Eighty of the school deeds were recorded at the New Bloomfield courthouse, but she found many more schools had unrecorded deeds.

"That was what made it so difficult," she says. Mrs. Becker also found many of the schools were built before deeds were issued — the deeds were made almost as an afterthought.

Margie Becker never thought she'd write a book.

But next year, she hopes to publish "A Scrapbook of Perry County Schoolhouses," a pictorial history of hundreds of old and new schools.

She wants the book's appearance to coincide with the 150th anniversary of the state's free school law, enacted in 1934.

She found there was no shortage of material — and she has a voluminous manuscript to prove it.

Her project began in 1976 when, serving on the arts and crafts committee at the county show in Susquenita, she volunteered to make a map of all the schools in Perry. Two years later, she decided to complete her copy by including the dates the schools were used.

Mrs. Becker found there were no exact records. She says there were about 50 schools before there were free schools.

Even after the free school law was passed, it took a few years before school districts adopted it and put it into effect. School directors had to be elected, teachers hired, taxes levied and buildings built.

All the first schools were started by religious congregations, who also used the buildings for religious purposes, Mrs. Becker notes.

It took her six months just to get the schools' names. She says she has talked to hundreds of people, learning much about the county and church history along the way.

"You don't want to miss something good, but in the beginning you just get a mish-mash of facts," she says.

Eighty of the school deeds were recorded at the New Bloomfield courthouse, but she found many more schools had unrecorded deeds.

"That was what made it so difficult," she says. Mrs. Becker also found many of the schools were built before deeds were issued — the deeds were made almost as an afterthought.

Some contracts were by verbal agreement and the more outlying schools were less apt to have recorded deeds, she says, adding, "It was a big job to get around the county back then."

Mrs. Becker found early school terms were short. In 1854, school lasted just four months because "that's all the legislature or school board was going to finance." In 1836, there was only one month of school.

"About every 10 years or so they would add a month, as people became more accustomed to school," Mrs. Becker says. She says people had to be educated about free schools so they would take an interest in them.

Many of the first schools were made of logs. Two of the oldest — Greenbriar in Spring Township and one in Center Township — are stone schoolhouses built over springhouses.

Mrs. Becker has traveled throughout the county, photographing schoolhouses and taking pictures of old photos of those no longer standing. At one point, she thought the book would be just photos, names and dates.

"I kind of thought it would be nice to do a book," she says, but "you can't invent history."

She didn't have to. As her data mushroomed, she found "it was like piecing a puzzle together."

She has also been able to compile a list of teachers for each school.

Mrs. Becker says her research is basically complete. She has worked steadily on the book for the past five years and has been typing the manuscript since Christmastime.

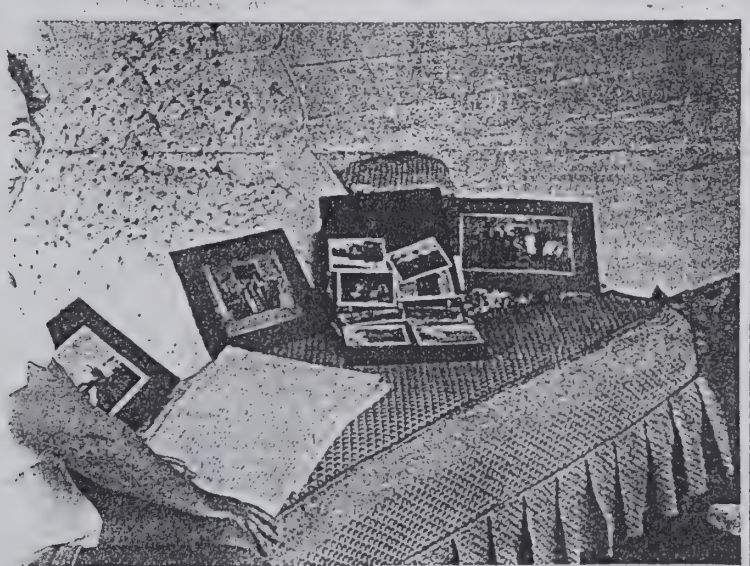

"But I've been goofing off this summer," she says.

She has enjoyed the research, she says, "but I have most minded the typing."
